GENERAL PROXY MATTERS

The following questions and answers provide guidance on how to vote your Shares.

Who is soliciting my proxy?

Management of the Corporation is soliciting your proxy. Solicitations of proxies will be primarily by mail, but may also be by newspaper publication, in person or by telephone, fax or oral communication by directors, officers or employees of the Corporation who will be specifically remunerated therefor by the Corporation. Management of the Corporation has retained the services of Kingsdale Shareholder Services Inc. (“Kingsdale”) for the solicitation of proxies at an aggregate cost estimated to be $30,000 to be borne by the Corporation. Shareholders of record on March 20, 2012 are entitled to receive notice of and vote at the Meeting. Shareholders are entitled to one vote per Share on any matters that may come before the Meeting. As of March 16, 2012, there were 174,009,873 Shares issued and outstanding.

A quorum of Shareholders shall be present at the Meeting if two or more persons holding not less than 10% of the Shares entitled to vote at the Meeting are present in person or represented by proxy, irrespective of the number of persons actually present at the Meeting.

If a body corporate or association is a Shareholder, the Corporation shall recognize any individual authorized by a resolution of the directors or governing body of the body corporate or association to represent it at the Meeting. How do I vote?

You can attend the Meeting or you can appoint someone else to vote for you as your proxyholder. In addition to revocation in any other manner permitted by law, a Shareholder giving a proxy and submitting it by mail may revoke it by an instrument in writing executed by the Shareholder or the Shareholder's attorney authorized in writing and deposited either at the Montréal office of CIBC Mellon, the transfer agent for the Shares (the "Transfer Agent"), at 2001 University Street, Suite 1600, Montréal, Quebec, or at the Corporation's registered office, at 5100 de Maisonneuve Blvd. West, Montréal, Quebec, Canada, H4A 3T2 at any time up to and including the last business day preceding the day of the Meeting, or any adjournment thereof, at which the proxy is to be used, or with the chair of the Meeting on the day of the Meeting, or any adjournment thereof. If the voting instructions were conveyed by telephone or over the Internet, conveying new voting instructions by any of these two (2) means or by mail within the applicable cut-off times will revoke the prior instructions.

BUSINESS OF THE MEETING

Six (6) items will be covered at the Meeting:

1. presentation of the consolidated financial statements of the Corporation for the year ended December 31, 2011, including the auditors' report thereon;
2. election of the Directors of the Corporation who will serve until the end of the next annual meeting of the Shareholders or until their successors are appointed;
3. appointment of the auditors of the Corporation;
4. amendment to the Articles of Incorporation of the Corporation, changing its corporate name to "Aimia Inc.";
5. an advisory vote on executive compensation; and
6. transaction of such further and other business as may properly be brought before the Meeting or any adjournment thereof.

As of the date of this Information Circular, the Directors of the Corporation are not aware of any changes to these items, and do not expect any other items to be brought forward at the Meeting. If there are changes or new items, your proxyholder can vote your Shares on these items as he or she sees fit.

Presentation of Financial Statements

The consolidated financial statements of the Corporation for the year ended December 31, 2011, including the auditors' report thereon, submitted to the Shareholders are included in the Corporation's 2011 annual report and are available on our website at www.aimia.com or on SEDAR at www.sedar.com. Copies of such statements will also be available at the Meeting.

Election of Directors

Shareholders will be asked to elect the Directors of the Corporation. Each Director elected at the Meeting will hold office until the end of the next annual meeting of Shareholders or until his or her successor is appointed. Please see "The Nominated Directors" on page 14.

The Board of Directors has adopted a policy regarding majority voting for the election of Directors. This policy is described under "The Nominated Directors – Majority Voting for Election of Directors" on page 25.

All of the individuals nominated for election as Directors are, as at March 16, 2012, members of the Board of Directors.

The Governance and Nominating Committee of the Board of Directors has reviewed the qualifications and recommended for election to the Board each of the nominees. The nominees are, in the opinion of the Board, well qualified to act as Directors for the coming year. Each nominee has established and confirmed his or her eligibility and willingness to serve as a Director, if elected.

If you do not specify how you want your Shares voted, the persons named as proxyholders will cast the votes represented by proxy at the Meeting FOR the election as Directors of each of the nominee directors who are named in this Information Circular.

Appointment of Auditors

The Board of Directors, on the advice of the Audit, Finance and Risk Committee of the Board of Directors (the “Audit Committee”), recommends that PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP, Chartered Accountants, be reappointed as auditors of the Corporation. PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP has served as auditors of the Corporation since the Corporation’s incorporation in May 2008 and as auditors of Aeroplan Income Fund, the predecessor of the Corporation, since its inception on May 12, 2005. The auditors appointed at the Meeting will serve until the end of the next annual meeting of Shareholders or until their successors are appointed.

Fees paid for the years ended December 31, 2011 and December 31, 2010 to PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP and its subsidiaries are $3,741,863 and $4,209,544, respectively, as detailed below:

	Year ended December 31, 2011	Year ended December 31, 2010
Audit fees	$2,276,710	$2,410,254
Audit-related fees	$28,558	$74,891
Tax fees	$578,276	$552,878
All other fees	$858,319	$1,171,521
	$3,741,863	$4,209,544

The nature of each category of fees is described below.

Audit fees. Audit fees were paid for professional services rendered for the audit of the Corporation's annual financial statements and for services that are normally provided in connection with statutory and regulatory filings or engagements.

Audit-related fees. In 2010, audit-related fees were paid for services rendered in connection with the offering of the Series 1 Preferred Shares and the $200 million Series 3 Notes. In 2011, audit-related fees were paid for services rendered in connection with the preparation and filing of the short form base shelf prospectus dated April 8, 2011.

Tax fees. Tax fees were paid in 2010 and 2011 in connection with assistance in the preparation of Scientific Research & Experimental Development tax credit claims, audit fees in connection with the review of tax provisions, and general tax advice and compliance advice.

All other fees. In 2010 and 2011, other fees were paid for professional services rendered with respect to the review of quarterly reporting by the Corporation and the translation thereof, the due diligence investigation in connection with the Corporation’s investment in Premier Loyalty & Marketing, S.A.P.I. de C.V. in 2010 and the due diligence investigation in connection with the Corporation’s investment in Cardlytics Inc. in 2011 and other regulatory and contractual audit-related obligations.

If you do not specify how you want your Shares voted, the persons named as proxyholders will cast the votes represented by proxy at the Meeting FOR the appointment of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP as auditors.

Change the Corporate Name to Aimia Inc.

On October 5, 2011, the Corporation started to conduct business under the new brand name Aimia. While the names and brand identities of our consumer-facing brands remain unchanged, our business-to-business brands LMG Insight & Communication and Carlson Marketing now operate under our new identity Aimia. On October 7, 2011, the Corporation's ticker symbols were changed, and its Shares and cumulative rate reset preferred shares, series 1, now trade on the Toronto Stock Exchange (“TSX”) under the symbols “AIM” and “AIM.PR.A”, respectively.

The Board of Directors believes that the Groupe Aeroplan identity, which was derived from the name of the original frequent flyer business and remains closely connected with the Aeroplan program in Canada, was no longer an accurate reflection of the Corporation, its employees, its global footprint and the unique full suite of loyalty management services, and that one single global brand better represents the global enterprise into which the Corporation has evolved. The name itself is inspired by palindromes – words that read the same backwards and forwards – as they give the sense of a two-way conversation. The symmetry of Aimia also mirrors the balance and partnership that sits at the core of our business. The name alludes to pinpoint precision and is meant to reflect both the point at which the needs of clients and the wants of consumers overlap, and the insight garnered from two different vantage points.

Shareholders will be asked to approve the amendment of the Corporation's Articles of Incorporation to change its name from Groupe Aeroplan Inc. to Aimia Inc. by voting on a special resolution (the “Name Change Resolution”), the full text of which is set out in Appendix B of this Information Circular, and which requires a two-thirds majority of the votes cast by Shareholders present in person or represented by proxy.

The Board of Directors of the Corporation recommends to the Shareholders to vote FOR the approval of the Name Change Resolution.

If you do not specify how you want your Shares voted, the persons named as proxyholders will cast the votes represented by proxy at the Meeting FOR the Name Change Resolution.

Advisory Vote on Executive Compensation

The Board of Directors believes that Shareholders should have the opportunity to fully understand the objectives and principles underlying executive compensation decisions made by the Board of Directors. The Corporation's executive compensation policies and programs are based on the fundamental principle of pay-for-performance to align the interests of the senior executive team with those of the Shareholders. This compensation approach allows the Corporation to attract and retain high-performing executives who will be strongly incented to create value for the Shareholders on a sustainable basis.

The Corporation is committed to providing Shareholders with clear, comprehensive and transparent disclosure relating to executive compensation and to receive feedback from Shareholders on this matter. In 2011, Shareholders had an opportunity to vote on our approach to executive compensation. This was an advisory and non-binding vote, and a very high percentage (98.8%) of our Shareholders voted for our approach to executive compensation. Shareholders will again be asked to vote on our approach to executive compensation at the Meeting.

The resolution Shareholders will be asked to approve, the full text of which is set out in Appendix C of this Information Circular (the “Say-on-Pay Advisory Resolution”), is the form of resolution recommended by the Canadian Coalition for Good Governance (“CCGG”). Please carefully review the “Compensation Discussion and Analysis” starting on page 33 of this Information Circular before voting on this matter. As this is an advisory vote, the results will not be binding upon the Board of Directors. However, in considering its approach to compensation over the upcoming years, the Board of Directors will take into account the results of the vote on the Say-on-Pay Advisory Resolution, together with the comments and concerns received from Shareholders.

The Board of Directors of the Corporation recommends to the Shareholders to vote FOR the approval of the Say-on-Pay Advisory Resolution.

If you do not specify how you want your Shares voted, the persons named as proxyholders will cast the votes represented by proxy at the Meeting FOR the approval of the Say-on-Pay Advisory Resolution.

Consideration of Other Business

We will:

- Report on other items that are significant to our business; and
- Invite questions and comments from Shareholders.

THE NOMINATED DIRECTORS

The articles of incorporation of the Corporation provide for the Board of Directors to consist of a minimum of three (3) and a maximum of twelve (12) Directors, a minimum of twenty-five (25) percent of whom must be residents of Canada. The number of Directors presently in office, as determined by the Board of Directors, is nine (9).

The proposed Board of Directors consists of nine (9) Directors, eight (8) of whom are independent from the Corporation. Please refer to “Statement of Governance Practices – Board of Directors – Independence” of this Information Circular for a discussion on Director independence.

Directors are elected annually. Each of the nominees whose names are set forth below are currently members of the Board of Directors, and have been so since the dates indicated. Board Interlocks

The Governance and Nominating Committee has reviewed the membership on the boards of other public companies of the Corporation's proposed nominees to the Board of Directors. No two (2) proposed nominees to the Board of Directors are members of the same board of directors of another public company.

In order to limit board interlocks, the Board of Directors adopted in 2011 a policy pursuant to which Directors must first disclose to the Governance and Nominating Committee for its review any proposed appointment to the board of a public company prior to accepting such appointment.

Majority Voting for Election of Directors

On November 14, 2008, the Board of Directors adopted a "majority voting" policy, pursuant to which if a nominee for election as Director receives a greater number of votes "withheld" than votes "for" at a meeting of Shareholders, he or she will be expected to tender his or her resignation to the Board of Directors promptly following the meeting of Shareholders at which the director is elected. Upon receiving such resignation, the Governance and Nominating Committee will consider it and make a recommendation to the Board of Directors whether to accept it or not. The Board of Directors will make its decision and announce it in a press release within 90 days following the meeting of Shareholders. The Director who tendered his or her resignation should not be part of any deliberations of any Committee or the Board of Directors pertaining to the resignation offer.

The policy only applies in circumstances involving an uncontested election of Directors. For the purpose of the policy, an "uncontested election of Directors" means that the number of Director nominees is the same as the number of Directors to be elected to the Board of Directors and that no proxy material is circulated in support of one or more nominees who are not part of the candidates supported by the Board of Directors.

Directors Attendance Record

In the 2011 financial year, the Board of Directors and its three standing Committees held the following number of meetings:

Board of Directors	9

Retirement Policy for Directors

The Corporation’s policy for retirement is that no person shall be appointed or elected as a Director if the person is aged 75 or more. The policy allows for an exception where the Board determines it is in the interest of the Corporation to request a Director to extend his/her term beyond the regular retirement age, provided however that such extension is requested in one-year increments.

STATEMENT OF EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

Human Resources and Compensation Committee Report to Shareholders

To our fellow shareholders:

The Board of Directors of the Corporation believes that one of its core responsibilities is to provide transparent disclosure of all aspects of the Corporation's executive compensation programs. This report is intended to provide an overview of how we pay our executives and the important work relative to executive compensation that was completed over the course of fiscal 2011. A more detailed discussion of our executive compensation program is provided in the "Compensation Discussion and Analysis" that follows this report on page 33.

The Role of the Human Resources and Compensation Committee

The Board of Directors, assisted by the Human Resources and Compensation Committee (the "HRCC"), is responsible for the executive compensation policies and practices of the Corporation, with specific accountability for the compensation of the Group Chief Executive (the "CEO") and the senior executives, including (with the CEO) the Named Executive Officers (the "NEOs") whose compensation is detailed in the "Compensation Discussion and Analysis" and supporting tables that follow. The members of the HRCC have extensive experience in compensation, business management, finance, law and corporate governance, among other areas. All of the Directors who served as members of the HRCC during the year ended December 31, 2011 are independent within the meaning of applicable regulatory requirements. The HRCC held 5 meetings in the fiscal year ended December 31, 2011 and met without Management present at each meeting. In addition, the HRCC employs an independent compensation consultant, PCI – Perrault Consulting Inc., that advises the HRCC on the design and market competitiveness of our executive compensation program. While the advice of the external consultant is an important input into the HRCC's decision-making process, all decisions regarding executive compensation are the ultimate responsibility of the Board of Directors. When making recommendations to the Board of Directors, the HRCC believes that shareholder interests should be considered first and foremost. In addition, the HRCC exercises its judgment and considers a variety of additional important factors, including the Corporation's business strategy, competitive market forces, independent external advice, internal business needs, and governance best practices.

Key Events and Activities in 2011

The HRCC undertook the following important activities in 2011:

- 1- Review of executive employment agreements. As a result of the Corporation's global expansion, roughly half of the Corporation's employees, including a significant number of executives, work outside of Canada. Based on this new reality, the HRCC undertook a comprehensive review of the employment agreements that are currently in place for key executives. This review resulted in the adoption of a standard set of terms and conditions that are consistent with current best practices and will be used for all new employment agreements at the Executive Vice President level. The HRCC believes that these common terms and conditions will promote alignment across the executive team and will form a basis for additional standardization for the balance of the Corporation's executive population.
- 2- Executive compensation benchmarking review. With the assistance of the HRCC's external consultant, the HRCC undertook a comprehensive market review of the Corporation's executive compensation levels. This review did not result in significant changes to executive compensation levels in 2011, but will be used to form the basis for 2012 compensation decisions.
- 3- Implementation of the Corporation's revised short-term incentive plan design (the "STIP"). The HRCC believes that it is important to periodically review the effectiveness and appropriateness of the Corporation's incentive plan designs, to ensure that they closely align executive interests with the Corporation's strategic objectives and support the Corporation's pay for performance philosophy. In 2011, the HRCC implemented changes to the STIP for executive employees, in order to ensure that there is a balanced focus on results at the corporate, divisional, and individual levels. A full description of the STIP design for 2011 and the associated performance levels and incentive payouts that were approved under the revised plan is included in the section titled "Short-Term Incentives" starting on page 41.
- 4- Historical performance analysis. As part of the HRCC's review of the Corporation's executive compensation plans, a review of the Corporation's historical financial performance was conducted relative to external peer companies in order to review compensation levels within the context of performance. This review was performed relative to the same peer groups that are used for compensation benchmarking purposes, in addition to a group of additional companies that are commonly referenced by the investment community as performance peers. The analysis provided a view of performance based on the variety of metrics that investors use to evaluate the Corporation, including but not limited to those that are used as metrics in the Corporation's incentive compensation plans, and was performed over multiple timeframes to provide a robust view of performance over the shorter and longer terms. The results of this analysis provided important additional context to the HRCC when making decisions regarding executive compensation.
- 5- Review of the impact of extraordinary events on the Corporation's incentive compensation program and determination of an appropriate course of action. The evaluation of performance and payouts under the Corporation's incentive compensation program is one of the HRCC's key responsibilities. The HRCC believes that when evaluating performance results, the occurrence of extraordinary events should be taken into account. In 2011, financial results were impacted by restructuring costs, adjustments to the valuation of intangible assets, and breakage adjustments resulting from the renegotiation of long-term contracts with key commercial partners. Each of these items is discussed in detail in the Corporation's annual report for 2011.

The HRCC carefully evaluated these extraordinary events and considered the range of potential impacts in respect of the Corporation's incentive programs. Further details are provided in the Section titled "Short-Term Incentives" starting on page 41.

Conclusion

We know that executive compensation is a high-profile area of shareholder focus, and believe that shareholders should have transparent information regarding how much our executives are paid, how the Corporation's executive compensation program works, and why the HRCC approved the payments that were made to executives. The HRCC takes its responsibilities very seriously, and believes that the compensation program described in these pages is consistent with the Corporation's business strategy, is aligned with shareholder interests, and supports governance best practices regarding executive compensation.

Sincerely,

Joanne Ferstman (Chair)

Executive Compensation Approach and Key Objectives

The Corporation's executive compensation program, as described in the following pages, is designed to achieve the following key objectives:

Compensation Objective

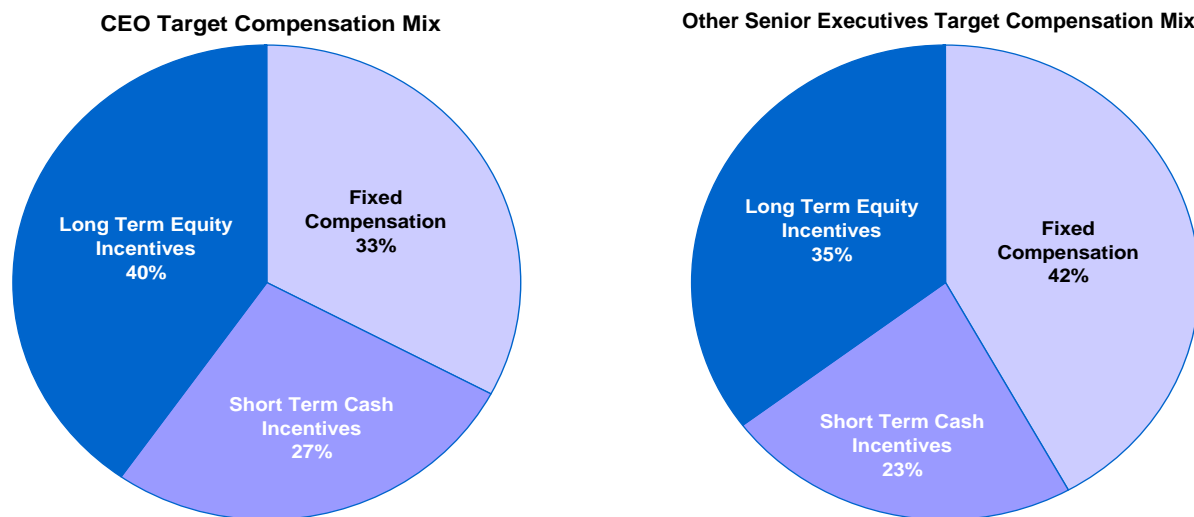

- Attract and retain senior executives with the skills, capabilities, talent and passion required for the Corporation to achieve its long-term strategic objectives.
- Motivate executives and reward them for the achievement of ambitious corporate objectives, thereby building a strong results-oriented culture that directly links pay with performance.

Design Criteria

- ➔ Deliver total compensation levels that are competitive with the median of the applicable peer group, as described in the following section, when target performance levels are achieved.
- ➔ Provide the opportunity for top-quartile total compensation when performance is exceptional, reduced to below-median total compensation levels when performance targets are not achieved.

- Align executive interests with those of shareholders with the ultimate objective of sustained long-term shareholder value creation, without encouraging excessive risk taking. → Ensure that a large proportion of compensation is equity-based with a multi-year vesting period, combined with minimum shareholding requirements, which promote sustained performance and value growth.

To achieve these objectives, over half of the Corporation's executive compensation is incentive-based, as illustrated in the following charts:

Use of Compensation Consultants and Benchmarking Peer Groups

During the 2011 financial year, the HRCC retained the services of PCI – Perrault Consulting Inc. for the purpose of providing external market data and expertise on the compensation of senior management, including the NEOs identified in this Information Circular. PCI – Perrault Consulting Inc. has provided consulting services to the HRCC since the Corporations' initial public offering as an income trust in 2005. Upon approval of the HRCC, the Corporation also retained the services of PCI – Perrault Consulting Inc. to perform other compensation consulting services for Management. In all cases, the HRCC is responsible for the selection of compensation consultants to the Board and must pre-approve other work provided to Management by the Board's compensation consultants.

The executive compensation-related fees (i.e. services related to determining compensation for any of the Corporation's directors or executive officers) and all other fees paid to PCI – Perrault Consulting Inc. for services provided during the 2011 and 2010 financial years are shown in the following table.

Type of Fees	Consulting Fees Billed in 2011 and 2010		Percentage of Total Fees Billed in 2011 and 2010
	PCI – Perrault Consulting Inc.		PCI – Perrault Consulting Inc.
	2011	2010	2011	2010
Executive Compensation-Related Fees	$23,925	$149,374	47%	83%

Type of Fees	Consulting Fees Billed in 2011 and 2010		Percentage of Total Fees Billed in 2011 and 2010

	2011	2010	2011	2010
All Other Fees	$27,260	$31,300	53%	17%
Total Annual Fees	$51,185	$180,674	100%	100%

While the advice of external consultants is an important input into the HRCC's decision-making process, all decisions regarding executive compensation are the ultimate responsibility of the Board of Directors. When making recommendations to the Board of Directors, the HRCC exercises its judgment and considers a variety of important factors, including the Corporation's business strategy, competitive market forces, independent external advice, internal business needs, governance best practices and, most importantly, shareholder interests.

External market benchmarking is an important component of the Corporation's executive compensation design. In order to calibrate the Corporation's pay for performance programs relative to the marketplace, it is important to have a benchmarking peer group that accurately reflects the various markets within which the Corporation competes for the leadership skills and talent required for the Corporation to be successful. In determining the peer groups, the HRCC considers the following important factors and challenges:

- As a Canadian company, an important point of reference is similar companies within the Canadian marketplace. However there is a lack of other Canadian companies that are direct peers within the loyalty industry;
- Within the broader North American (or international) marketplace, there are few companies that have a mix of businesses and geographic footprint that compare well with the Corporation;
- Many loyalty management organizations are embedded within larger companies (such as financial institutions, credit card companies, or airlines) which are not reasonable peers from an executive compensation point of view; and
- Smaller players occupying niche segments of the market represent a new and powerful source of competitive demand for talent.

Accordingly, the HRCC has adopted a multi-faceted approach which considers compensation peers from a variety of angles and includes a broader selection of both Canadian and international peer companies (the "Comparator Groups"), as follows:

Comparator Group & Rationale	Selection Criteria
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Canadian peer group – developed in order to provide a view of compensation practices for companies of similar size in the Canadian market 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> – Companies similar in size based on annual revenues (within roughly 0.5x to 2.0x of the Corporation's annual revenues) – Companies with significant international operations – Companies commonly referenced as peers from a shareholder point of view (based on analyst reports)
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Industry peer group – developed to provide a view of compensation practices within peer companies that are more directly comparable 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> – Companies similar in size based on annual revenues (within roughly 0.5x to 2.0x of the

from an industry point of view and provide peer data for executives based in the United States	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> – Corporation's annual revenues) – Companies within similar industry sectors <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Advertising/media, data analytics, internet retail, market research, business services, IT consulting – Companies commonly referenced as peers from a shareholder point of view (based on analyst reports)
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • European peer group – developed to reflect the Corporation's international expansion and provide peer data for executives based in Europe 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> – Companies similar in size based on annual revenues (within roughly 0.5x to 2.0x of the Corporation's annual revenues) – Companies within similar industry sectors <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Advertising/media, data analytics, internet retail, market research, business services, IT consulting

To establish competitive market ranges for the Corporation's executives and to reflect the scope of responsibilities for each role, the Comparator Group weighting was established at 100% of the applicable regional peer group for divisional executives and in proportion to the Corporation's overall revenue sources for corporate executives:

Comparator Group Weighting

Executive Position	Canadian Peer Group	Industry Peer Group	European Peer Group
Corporate Executives (CEO, CFO, COO)	60%	25%	15%
Canadian Division Executives	100%
US Division Executives		100%
European Division Executives			100%

The HRCC believes that this multi-faceted approach using the expanded groups of peer companies more accurately reflects the complexities of the various markets within which the Corporation competes for talent, while allowing the Corporation to establish compensation levels and designs that are globally consistent but also regionally competitive.

The following tables describe the companies which have been identified in accordance with the above criteria and included in the Comparator Groups, and provide additional data regarding each peer company. All financial data for the peer companies was obtained from publicly available sources, and represents data for fiscal year 2010. The Comparator Groups used for benchmarking in 2011 were the same as those used in 2010; however Yellow Media was removed from the Canadian Comparator Group due to the significant changes in its business performance and financial results.

In addition to proxy compensation data for the peer companies in the Comparator Groups, the Corporation reviews general compensation surveys on a regular basis to compare its compensation policies to generally accepted practices for publicly traded companies of similar scope and scale of operations, as well as incorporating data from a range of external sources, such as public disclosure documents from a variety of entities, and access to research carried out by the Conference Board of Canada and other agencies. It is important to note that, while market data from the sources described above is an important input into the HRCC's compensation decisions, the HRCC does not make these decisions based exclusively on market compensation data. In addition to market data, the HRCC considers information such as (but not limited to):

- Each executive's experience, progression and success within their role;
- Each executive's leadership of their specific part of the business, in addition to the Corporation as a whole;
- The Corporation's strategic plans with respect to executive talent development and succession.

Elements of the Corporation's Compensation Program – Fixed Compensation

Base Salary

The HRCC reviews and approves the base salary for each executive officer of the Corporation taking into account the executive's responsibilities, the scale and scope of the business operations under his/her supervision, experience and competencies and overall performance. As the base salary represents the reference for many of the other elements of compensation, critical attention is paid to the positioning of the individual salary against external benchmarks for similar roles and within the Corporation. Base salaries are evaluated on a regional basis (e.g., Canada, the United States, the United Kingdom) and are targeted to the median levels of comparable roles within the Comparator Group (or weighted group for the CEO, CFO and COO) with adjustments above or below median in recognition of skills, competencies and experience.

Perquisites and Other Benefits

The Corporation's executive benefits, pension and perquisite programs have been designed to reflect competitive market practices in each of the regional markets where we compete for talent and to support the contributions of executive officers in meeting the ongoing demands of a dynamic business environment. Details on the value of these programs to individual executive officers are included in the Summary Compensation Table shown on page 53.

The Corporation's executives participate in the same benefits programs that are offered to all employees of the Corporation. These programs are tailored to the typical market practices and conditions in the various countries where the Corporation operates, and include mandatory and voluntary participation options for employees and their eligible dependents. Key elements of the benefit plans are basic group life insurance, accidental death and dismemberment insurance, short and long-term disability coverage, medical and dental coverage, out-of-country insurance and supplementary life and accidental death and dismemberment insurance. In addition to these benefits, the Corporation's executive officers are provided with supplemental perquisites and benefits as follows:

Executive Roles by Region	Supplemental Perquisites and Benefits
<ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ Group Chief Executive (“CEO”)▪ Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer (“CFO”)▪ Executive Vice President, Chief Operating Officer; President and CEO – US and APAC (“COO and President & CEO US and APAC”)▪ Executive Vice President; President and CEO - Canada (“President & CEO Canada”)	Flexible perquisites account equal to 15% of base salary (capped at $70,000 for the CEO)
<ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ Executive Vice President; President and CEO – EMEA (“President & CEO EMEA”)	Flexible perquisites allowance of £43,630 per year

Retirement Plans

The Corporation's executives participate in retirement programs that are tailored to the market practices and conditions in the various countries where the Corporation operates. Details regarding the retirement plans available to the Corporation's executive officers in each region are as follows:

Canada: Retirement savings for Canadian-based executive officers is delivered through a registered defined contribution pension plan (the “Defined Contribution Plan”) and a supplementary executive retirement plan (the “SERP”). The Defined Contribution Plan involves annual contributions, through co-payment by the Corporation and executive officers, of 15% of base salary, up to the annual maximums permitted under Canadian tax legislation at which point a Corporation-paid defined contribution SERP completes the contribution to achieve the target annual contribution.

United Kingdom: Executives based in the United Kingdom participate in the defined contribution pension plan established for all UK-based employees. Under the plan, the Corporation matches the employee contribution up to a maximum of 10% of base salary. There is no supplemental retirement plan for UK-based executive officers.

Elements of the Corporation’s Compensation Program – Variable Compensation

Short-Term Incentives

The Corporation’s annual performance-based cash incentive plan (the “Annual Performance Incentive Plan”) is a critical component of the Corporation’s executive compensation program. The primary objective of the plan is to recognize and reward executives for the achievement of results that are aligned with business objectives over the annual performance cycle.

Each executive is assigned an annual performance incentive target, expressed as a percentage of her or his base salary, which is established based on the market median of the applicable Comparator Group (or weighted group for the CEO, CFO and COO). Actual incentive payments can range from 0x to 2.0x the target incentive, based on the achievement of corporate, divisional, and individual results. The performance metrics used in the plan, and the business rationale for their selection, are discussed in the following table:

Performance Metrics	Reasons for Selection
Corporate Metrics:
– A-EBITDA ⁽¹⁾	– A-EBITDA and FCF/share are two of the primary metrics tracked by shareholders to evaluate the profitable growth of our business and our ability to generate returns for shareholders
– Free Cash Flow ⁽¹⁾ per Share (“ FCF/share ”)
– Adjusted Net Earnings ⁽²⁾	– Adjusted Net Earnings provides a view of profitability at the corporate level
Divisional Metrics:
– Divisional A-EBITDA or EBITDA	– Divisional executives are directly responsible for A-EBITDA / EBITDA results within their divisions
– Divisional Gross Billings / Gross Revenues	– Gross Billings / Revenues is a key indicator of our success in implementing the Corporation’s growth strategy
– Divisional Operating Income	– Operating Income provides a view of profitability at the divisional level
Individual Strategic Metrics:
– Strategic objectives that are directly impacted by each executive	– The HRCC believes that each executive should also be evaluated on the successful achievement of objectives that are linked to the Corporation’s business strategy, as well as critical qualitative metrics, such as effective leadership and behaviours that demonstrate and promote the Corporation’s core values

(1) A-EBITDA refers to earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization (EBITDA) adjusted for certain factors particular to the Corporation’s business, such as changes in deferred revenue and future redemption costs. A-EBITDA is used by Management to evaluate performance and to measure compliance with debt covenants. Management believes A-EBITDA assists investors in comparing the Corporation’s performance on a consistent basis without regard to depreciation and amortization, which are non-cash in nature and can vary significantly depending on accounting methods and non-operating factors such as historical cost. A-EBITDA is not a measurement based on GAAP, is not considered an alternative to operating income or net income in measuring performance, and is not comparable to similar measures used by other issuers. Free Cash Flow before dividends paid is defined as cash flows from operating activities, as reported in accordance with GAAP, less capital expenditures as reported in accordance with GAAP.

(2) Adjusted Net Earnings provides a measurement of profitability calculated on a basis consistent with A-EBITDA. Net earnings attributable to equity holders of the Corporation are adjusted to exclude Amortization of Accumulation Partners’ contracts, customer relationships and technology, share of net earnings (loss) of PLM and impairment charges. Adjusted Net Earnings includes the change in deferred revenue and Change in Future Redemption Costs, net of the income tax effect and non controlling interest effect (where applicable) on these items at an entity level basis.

The weighting of corporate and divisional metrics depends on the level and scope of each executive position. Financial metrics are measured against specific targets set at the beginning of the plan year. Individual strategic metrics are measured using a mix of quantitative results and qualitative evaluation by the HRCC of each executive's performance, including input from the CEO. Together, the financial and individual performance metrics can result in a total incentive payment from 0x to 2.0x the target amount.

The annual performance incentive formula for each of the NEOs, with the respective weightings of each metric, is shown in the following table:

2011 Annual Performance Incentive Plan Formula / Weightings

Role	Target Incentive (% of base salary)	Corporate Metrics			Divisional Metrics			Individual Metrics
		A-EBITDA	FCF / Share	Adj Net Earnings	A-EBITDA / EBITDA	Billings / Revenues	Operating Income
CEO	100%	30%	30%	20%		n/a	20%
CFO; COO and President & CEO US and APAC ⁽¹⁾	65%	30%	30%	20%		n/a	20%
Presidents & CEOs, Canada and EMEA	65%	15%	15%	10%	15%	15%	10%	20%

(1) The COO assumed responsibility as President & CEO of the US and APAC region in October 2011. As such, her annual bonus for 2011 was based on corporate and individual results and did not include a divisional component (although results for the US and APAC region are incorporated into the consolidated corporate results).

The threshold, target and maximum performance levels and corresponding payouts are established annually by the HRCC based on the annual Board-approved targets for the Corporation's financial results. For A-EBITDA, FCF/share, Adjusted Net Earnings and Divisional Operating Income the minimum threshold and maximum are 90% and 110% of target, respectively, while for Divisional Gross Billings / Gross Revenues the minimum threshold and maximum are 96% and 104% of target, respectively. The overall threshold for any payment under the Annual Performance Incentive Plan to any participant is the achievement of 85% of the annual Board-approved target for the Corporation's consolidated A-EBITDA to align bonuses with the Corporation's capacity to pay.

The HRCC believes strongly that the evaluation of performance and payouts under the Corporation's Annual Performance Incentive Plan is one of its key responsibilities. As such, the HRCC considers that it is important to exercise a degree of judgment when evaluating performance results, especially when considering the impact of extraordinary / non-operating events. In 2011, financial results were impacted by restructuring costs, adjustments to the valuation of intangible assets, and breakage adjustments resulting from the renegotiation of long-term contracts with key commercial partners. Each of these items is discussed in detail in the Corporation's annual report for 2011.

The Annual Performance Incentive Plan threshold, target, and maximum performance objectives for 2011 are presented in the following table, along with the actual reported full year 2011 results, both including and excluding the non-operating events described above:

	2011 Performance Objectives			Actual 2011 Results
	Threshold	Target	Maximum	As reported including extraordinary events	Adjusted to exclude extraordinary events
Corporate Performance Objectives and Results (in millions of CAD, except per share amounts)
A-EBITDA	$316.6	$ 351.8	$387.0	$342.2	$373.2
FCF/share	$ 0.84	$ 0.93	$ 1.02	$ 1.04	$ 1.06
Adj. Net Earnings	$203.9	$ 226.5	$249.2	$198.0	$227.5
Divisional Performance Objectives and Results
Canada (in millions of CAD)
A-EBITDA	$315.6	$350.7	$385.7	$372.6	$380.4
Gross Billings	$1,258.1	$1,310.5	$1,362.9	$1,299.5	$1,299.5
Operating Income	$289.3	$321.4	$353.5	$354.8	$362.7
EMEA (in millions of GBP)
A-EBITDA	£17.6	£19.6	£21.6	£17.3	£25.9
Gross Billings	£337.9	£352.0	£366.1	£359.8	£356.4
Operating Income	£11.5	£12.8	£14.1	£-68.5	£18.8

The HRCC carefully evaluated each of the extraordinary events described above and considered the range of potential impacts in respect of the Corporation's Annual Performance Incentive Plan. Ultimately, the HRCC used its discretion to approve annual performance incentive awards for the CEO and his direct reports at a level that was lower than if the results had been adjusted to exclude the impact of all extraordinary events, but higher than if the impacts of all extraordinary events had been included. Details regarding the annual performance incentive payments are shown in the table on page 50 as well as in the Summary Compensation Table on page 53.

The individual metrics, which have a 20% target weighting for NEO bonuses, are determined based on quantitative results and a qualitative evaluation by the HRCC of each NEO's performance, including input from the CEO. Strategic objectives for each NEO are established at the start of each year and include metrics from the following performance categories:

- Operational effectiveness and efficiency targets:
 - Revenue enhancement
 - Budget oversight and resource management
 - Project delivery that meets/exceeds targets
- Innovation and business growth targets:
 - Customer service enhancements
 - Business, product and/or process design and development
 - Product and program enhancements
- Talent development and succession planning targets:
 - Development of effective leadership and communications processes within areas under control
 - Performance management systems applications
 - Identification and development of critical talent
- Enhancement of the Corporation's capabilities and reputation targets:
 - Extension of personal influence, capability and capacity in service of business objectives
 - Sustainability of the business and the communities in which we operate
 - Enhancement of professional skill set

In the context of the overall business planning process, the Chairman of the Board of Directors and the Chair of the HRCC review and set the strategic performance objectives of the CEO, who in turn develops the individual performance objectives for the Corporation's most senior executives, including the NEOs, which reflect the specific strategic objectives within each of the categories listed above, in accordance with the executive's role, scope and specific mandate.

The Corporation operates loyalty marketing programs in a very highly competitive global environment, characterized by multiple competitor programs/services delivered through a very large variety of business models, including credit card operations within financial institutions, proprietary programs through retailers, and multi-partner coalition programs. In each of our operating markets, our programs enjoy a leadership position, with active engagement of both consumers and commercial partners. As such, our commercial practices, business development, and consumer marketing efforts reflect significant differentiation that requires active protection from wide-ranging competitive challenges. The individual performance objectives of our executives include specific targets that would, if made public, provide explicit identification of both financial and strategic direction of the Corporation, including timing of strategic initiatives, and therefore provide highly competitive data as well as inappropriate market guidance to our competitors. As such, disclosure of the specific individual performance objectives of our executives would seriously prejudice the Corporation's interests and significantly weaken our ability to maintain and build our market leadership. Hence, these objectives are not disclosed.

However, in the spirit of nurturing increasing shareholder value and driving a performance-based reward system, the performance objectives for both disclosed and undisclosed metrics are appropriately ambitious and significantly difficult to achieve, so as to align with our performance-based rewards philosophy. Individual performance objectives are generally based on strategic activities that are aligned with the Corporation's long-range plan, and where applicable must generally meet or exceed the actual results from the prior year. The proportion of total compensation represented by this undisclosed component of the short-term incentive plan is provided in the table on page 51 under the section "Total Compensation Pay Mix".

Long-Term Incentives

The Corporation's long-term incentive programs are designed to provide eligible participants with incentive compensation that enhances the Corporation's ability to attract, retain and motivate the key contributors to drive the Corporation's long-term business success and to reward executives and other critical employees for significant performance that results in the Corporation meeting or exceeding its performance targets over the long-term. For the fiscal year ended December 31, 2011, long-term incentives were awarded under the Corporation's Long-Term Incentive Plan as described below:

- The Corporation LTIP: Upon completion of the conversion on June 25, 2008 of Aeroplan Income Fund from an income trust structure to a corporate structure, the Corporation implemented a new long-term incentive program. The Corporation LTIP is more suited to a corporate structure as opposed to an income trust tailored plan and, other than for outstanding awards made as a result of pre-existing contractual commitments to the CEO and one other executive, has now completely replaced the Corporation's prior long term incentive plans (as described in the following sections and in Appendix D) as the Corporation's principal long-term incentive plan. The Corporation LTIP provides for awards of Options and Performance Share Units to eligible plan participants. A summary of the design of the awards granted in 2011 is provided in the following table:

LTIP Award Type	Design Details	Design Objectives
Options	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> – Exercise price set at the market price on the date of grant – Vest over four years from the date of grant, 25% per year – Expire seven years after the date of grant 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> – Align plan participants with shareholders <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Options only have value if the share price increases from the date of grant – Motivate plan participants to pursue strategies that will enhance shareholder value over the long term

LTIP
Award Type	Design Details	Design Objectives
Performance Share Units (PSUs)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> – Vest at the end of three years from the date of grant – PSUs are earned based on the achievement of the Corporation's A-EBITDA growth targets over the three-year vesting period, with 50% weighted on the performance for each of the three years, and 50% on the aggregate performance for the full three year vesting period 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> – Align plan participants with shareholders <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ PSU value directly tracks the share price – Reward plan participants for consistent earnings performance over the long-term <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ A-EBITDA was selected as the PSU performance metric since it is one of the principal metrics used by the investment community to evaluate the Corporation's performance and is considered to have an important impact on long-term value growth

The three-year A-EBITDA targets that apply to the PSU component of the Corporation LTIP are established based on the projections that are contained in the Corporation's three-year business plan, which is approved by the Board of Directors. The Corporation believes that the specific three-year A-EBITDA targets are competitively sensitive since they represent earnings projections into the future. Furthermore, since these targets reflect a rolling three-year performance horizon, and as the Corporation does not provide financial forecasts with respect to these metrics in any of its public disclosure documents, disclosing such targets could be misinterpreted as guidance. Hence, these objectives are not disclosed. To support the Corporation's intent to continuously increase shareholder value and foster a performance-based reward mind-set, the targets approved by the Board for A-EBITDA growth rates reflect increasing expectations and demands on executives each year and explicitly align the leadership across the organization to our performance-based rewards philosophy. The percentage of each NEO's total compensation that is related to these PSU targets is shown in the "Total Compensation Pay Mix" table on page 51 under the column labeled "% of Total Compensation from Share-Based Awards".

The HRCC believes that the combination of performance vesting share units (the "PSUs") and time-vesting Options provide a strong link between pay and performance, by focusing executives on both financial objectives over a three year time horizon (measured by A-EBITDA growth) and share price appreciation over the longer term.

In addition to the Corporation LTIP, a full description of which is provided in Appendix D, the Corporation also manages the long-term incentive plans described below which were used to grant long-term incentives in prior years (details of which are also provided in Appendix D). Neither of these plans were used to grant awards to the Corporation's executives in 2011:

- Omnibus Plan: In 2006, the Board of Directors approved the implementation of the Omnibus Plan for attraction and retention purposes. The only remaining outstanding awards under the Omnibus Plan were made as a result of pre-existing contractual commitments to the CEO and one other executive. No further grants under the Omnibus Plan are anticipated, and the Omnibus Plan will terminate at the completion of the last award grant vesting cycle.
- Deferred Share Unit Plan: In 2008, the Board of Directors approved the DSU Plan in order to provide Directors and designated officers and executives of the Corporation with DSUs to promote a greater alignment of interests with the Shareholders. DSUs are a regular component of compensation for members of the Board of Directors but were not awarded to executives in the fiscal year ended December 31, 2011.

Identification and Management of Risks Related to Compensation

The Corporation's management, in conjunction with the HRCC and the committee's external advisor, regularly review the Corporation's compensation programs to ensure that they do not encourage excessive or inappropriate risk taking. These reviews include stress testing incentive plan designs under various performance scenarios (from minimum threshold to maximum) to understand the impact on potential incentive payouts. In addition, the Corporation has the following policies to help prevent excessive risk taking:

- Incentive compensation for all executives is balanced between short-term and long-term incentives to promote balanced decision making and ensure that executives do not make decisions that increase short-term payouts at the expense of long-term performance.
- Short-term incentive compensation plans include a variety of performance metrics so that executives must take a balanced view in order to earn incentive payouts, rather than focusing on a single goal to the detriment of others.
- The HRCC reviews and approves the achievement of performance objectives and regularly exercises judgement and discretion when finalizing incentive payouts under the Corporation's executive compensation plans.
- The Corporation has clawback provisions in place such that the Board of Directors may require the reimbursement of all or a portion of the performance incentive awards paid to the CEO and/or the CFO under certain circumstances (see pages 48 and 50 for further details).
- The Corporation has minimum shareholding guidelines and trading guidelines in place for all executives, as described in the following section, to ensure that executive interests are aligned with those of Shareholders and which prohibit activities such as the purchase of financial instruments that are designed to hedge or offset a decrease in market value of the Corporation's securities. In addition, the CEO is required to maintain his minimum share ownership level for a period of three (3) months following termination of his employment for any reason.

Senior Executives' Minimum Shareholding Requirements and Trading Guidelines

The Corporation has Shareholding Guidelines for Executives which require certain executives of the Corporation to hold Shares, DSUs or time-vesting restricted Shares issued pursuant to the Omnibus Plan or the Corporation LTIP ("Time-Vesting RSUs") with an aggregate minimum value (the "Minimum Share Ownership Value for Executives") at least equal to (i) four times the salary for the CEO; (ii) two times the salary for an Executive Vice-President; and (iii) one time the salary for a Senior Vice-President and a Vice-President, within a five-year period (seven-year period for Vice-Presidents) starting at the later of (a) January 1, 2009; and (b) the executives' date of hiring or promotion. The extent to which the Minimum Share Ownership Value for Executives is achieved will be evaluated annually at the end of each financial year.

The Corporation also has trading guidelines in place for all executives which specifically prohibit the purchase of financial instruments that are designed to hedge or offset a decrease in market value of the Corporation's securities.

Compensation of Named Executive Officers

CEO

The Chair of the HRCC works closely with the Chairman of the Board of Directors in completing the final performance appraisal of the CEO. The Chairman submits the annual performance appraisal and accompanying compensation recommendations to the HRCC for review and subsequent submission for approval by the Board of Directors.

In order to promote alignment between the CEO and the rest of his senior executive team, the CEO participates in the same annual performance incentive plan as described in the section titled “Short-Term Incentives” starting on page 41. A full discussion of the 2011 targets, results achieved, and the HRCC’s evaluation of performance relative to the targets is provided on page 43. The 2011 individual strategic objectives set by the Board of Directors for the CEO were focused on an important set of enterprise development objectives. Details regarding these objectives and the HRCC’s assessment of the CEO’s performance relative to these objectives are discussed in the following table.

The CEO's achievements in the areas listed above led the HRCC to recommend to the Board of Directors that the CEO be awarded a maximum rating for individual performance under the Annual Performance Incentive Plan for financial year 2011, resulting in the payment of an annual cash bonus for 2011 of 160% of the base salary earned in 2011, in accordance with the formula set forth under "Short-Term Incentives". Details regarding the calculation of the annual performance incentive for the CEO are provided in the following table:

(1) Represents performance results excluding the impact of extraordinary events, as described on pages 42 and 43.

(2) Represents the total annual incentive paid, as adjusted based on Board discretion.

Pursuant to the Corporation's clawback policy, the Board of Directors reserves the right, to the full extent permitted by applicable laws and to the extent it determines that it is in the best interests of the Corporation, to require reimbursement of all or a portion of the CEO's 2011 performance incentive award outlined above, in the event that (i) the amount of the performance incentive award was calculated based upon, or contingent upon, the achievement of certain financial results that are subsequently the subject of or affected by a restatement of the Corporation's financial statements, (ii) the CEO engaged in intentional misconduct or fraud that caused or partially caused the need for the restatement, and (iii) the amount of the 2011 performance incentive award would have been lower had the financial results been properly reported.

The CEO participates in the Corporation LTIP, with the same terms and conditions as described in the section "Long-Term Incentives" starting on page 44, and received grants under the Corporation LTIP starting in fiscal year 2011.

For the financial year ended December 31, 2011, the following recommendations on compensation for the CEO were submitted for review and subsequently approved by both the HRCC and the Board of Directors:

- The CEO's base salary was unchanged in 2011.
- The CEO's target annual bonus was unchanged in 2011.
- The CEO was awarded a bonus under the Annual Performance Incentive Plan in the amount of $1,225,222 (160% of the aggregate base salary earned in 2011, as described above).
- The CEO was granted 196,831 options and 60,203 PSUs under the Corporation LTIP with the same vesting terms and conditions as those described in the "Long-Term Incentives" section starting on page 44.

With respect to unvested RSUs awarded pursuant to the terms of the Omnibus Plan, if Mr. Duchesne is terminated without cause or resigns for good reason, his unvested time-based RSUs vest pro-rata based on the number of months worked, including the 24 months' severance period, during each respective performance period and his unvested performance-based RSUs vest pro-rata based on the number of months worked during the respective performance period; if he becomes disabled, unvested RSUs continue to vest until the end of the respective performance period; in the event of his death, unvested RSUs vest immediately.

Pursuant to the terms of the Omnibus Plan, upon a "change of control" as defined therein, all outstanding RSUs will immediately become vested whether or not the vesting conditions have been met. The CEO's employment agreement provides that if, prior to January 1, 2013, there is a "change of control" as per the terms of the Omnibus Plan, or in the event of his death prior to January 1, 2013, the CEO shall be deemed to have been granted 20,000 additional RSUs for each calendar year from 2007 up to the date of the change of control or death, which RSUs shall be treated in accordance with the terms of the Omnibus Plan.

The CEO's employment agreement also stipulates that he must comply with the Corporation's Minimum Shareholding Requirements and achieve a minimum ownership level of Shares, Time-Vesting RSUs and DSUs equal to four times his base salary as follows:

- 50% of minimum ownership level by December 1, 2009 (achieved); and
- 100% of minimum ownership level by June 1, 2012 (achieved as of March 16, 2012).

The CEO is required to maintain his minimum share ownership level for a period of three (3) months after termination of his employment for any reason.

Please refer to the Summary Compensation Table and other tabular disclosure on page 53 of this Information Circular for further details on the total compensation awarded to the CEO for the 2011 financial year.

Other Named Executive Officers

All of the Corporation's NEOs identified in the Summary Compensation Table on page 53 participate in the same Annual Performance Incentive Plan as described in the section titled "Short-Term Incentives" starting on page 41.

The CEO works closely with the Chairman of the Board and the HRCC to establish financial and individual performance objectives for each of the executive officers of the Corporation, including the NEOs. The critical financial and individual performance categories are described starting on page 43, with specific individual areas of focus aligned to each executive's roles and responsibilities. The set of each executive's individual strategic objectives includes specific targets that would, if made public, provide explicit identification of both the financial and strategic direction for the Corporation, including timing of strategic initiatives, and therefore provide highly competitive data as well as inappropriate market guidance to our competitors. The HRCC believes that disclosure of the specific individual strategic objectives under the Annual Performance Incentive Plan would seriously prejudice the Corporation's interests and significantly weaken our ability to maintain and build our market leadership. Hence, these objectives are not disclosed. The CEO develops an annual performance appraisal for each of the executive officers, including the NEOs, based on quantitative results and a qualitative evaluation of each executive's performance measured against the predetermined criteria set at the beginning of each fiscal year. These performance appraisals are used to determine the individual performance rating, which is worth 20% of the target annual performance incentive and is presented to the HRCC for subsequent submission for approval by the Board of Directors.

Bonuses awarded to the NEOs with respect to financial year 2011 were determined by applying the Annual Performance Incentive Plan formula presented in the section "Short-Term Incentives" (the same formula that was used to determine the CEO's bonus). The following table provides additional detail regarding the annual performance incentive calculation for each of the NEOs for the 2011 performance year. These payouts reflect the HRCC's decision to adjust NEO bonuses based on the impact of extraordinary events in 2011. A full discussion of the 2011 targets, results achieved, and the HRCC's evaluation of performance relative to the targets is provided on page 42.

Pursuant to the Corporation's clawback policy, the Board of Directors reserves the right, to the full extent permitted by applicable laws and to the extent it determines that it is in the best interests of the Corporation, to require reimbursement of all or a portion of the 2011 performance incentive award paid to the CFO as outlined above, in the event that (i) the amount of the performance incentive award was calculated based upon, or contingent upon, the achievement of certain financial results that are subsequently the subject of or affected by a restatement of the Corporation's financial statements, (ii) the CFO engaged in intentional misconduct or fraud that caused or partially caused the need for the restatement, and (iii) the amount of the 2011 performance incentive award would have been lower had the financial results been properly reported.

In addition to the annual performance incentive awards described in the preceding table, each of the NEOs was granted awards under the Corporation LTIP in 2011 as shown in the following table. None of the NEOs exercised any of their vested options in 2011.

- (2) The target annual LTIP is generally awarded in a mix of 75% Options and 25% PSUs for EVPs and Region Presidents.

Please refer to the Summary Compensation Table and other tabular disclosure on page 53 of this Information Circular for further details on the total compensation awarded to the named executives for the 2011 financial year.

Total Compensation Pay Mix

The following table provides the “pay mix” (as hereinafter defined) of the total compensation awarded in 2011 for each of the NEOs. “Pay mix” is the resulting relative value of each compensation element following the allocation of total compensation value. It is expressed as a percentage of the total compensation.

Name and Principal Position	% of Total Compensation from Salary	% of Total Compensation from Share-Based Awards	% of Total Compensation from Option-Based Awards	% of Total Compensation from Annual Incentive Plans	% of Total Compensation from Pension Value	% of Total Compensation from All Other Compensation
Rupert Duchesne CEO	19%	20%	19%	31%	3%	8%

Vince Timpano President & CEO Canada	30%	8%	25%	29%	4%	4%
Elizabeth Graham COO and President & CEO US and APAC	28%	9%	26%	29%	3%	5%

The percentage of NEO total cash compensation (base salary and annual performance incentive) and total compensation that resulted from the achievement of individual performance objectives within the Annual Performance Incentive Plan that are based on qualitative and quantitative assessment of metrics that are not fully disclosed, as described on pages 44 and 44, is shown in the following table. The HRCC believes that the performance objectives for both disclosed and undisclosed metrics are appropriately ambitious and significantly difficult to meet to ensure the leadership across the organization recognizes and delivers upon our performance-based rewards philosophy.

Name and Principal Position	% of Compensation Based on Metrics Not Fully Disclosed
	% of Total Cash Compensation (Base Salary + Annual Performance Incentive)	% of Total Compensation
David L. Adams CFO	9.3%	5.3%

Alignment of Executive Compensation with Shareholder Interests

The following performance graph compares the total cumulative return of a $100 investment in Aeroplan Income Fund units made on January 1, 2007, with the cumulative return on the S&P/TSX Composite Total Return Index for the period beginning January 1, 2007 and ended December 31, 2011, and with the average cash compensation paid to the Corporation's CEO and CFO, and to all the Corporation NEOs, over the same period of time. The units of Aeroplan Income Fund were delisted from the TSX on June 27, 2008, at which time the Corporation's shares commenced trading on the TSX.

Average cash compensation is based on the sum of the base salary and bonus (or non-equity incentive plan compensation) paid to NEOs as reported in the Corporation's proxy circulars for the years ending on December 31, 2007 through to December 31, 2011. For consistency and comparability, in years where more than five NEOs were reported, the sum of the base salary and bonus (or non-equity incentive plan compensation) paid to the five highest-paid NEOs were included in the calculation; in years where more than one Chief Financial Officer was presented, the annualized sum of the base salary and bonus paid to the incumbent holding the Chief Financial Officer title at the end of the financial year was used. For 2010, average compensation was calculated excluding the one-time bonus paid by the Corporation pursuant to a one-year post-transaction retention agreement between Carlson Marketing and Jeff Balagna that was established before the Corporation acquired Carlson Marketing.

As demonstrated above, the overall corporate performance of the Corporation, and its predecessor Aeroplan Income Fund, had outpaced the results of the Canadian public companies community, as represented by the S&P/TSX Total Return Index, in 2007 until the global downturn in financial markets in 2008. Similarly, total cash compensation for the Corporation's NEOs also declined in 2008 relative to 2007.

In 2009, while navigating through the recession, the Corporation continued to focus on strategic and operational execution, resulting in a 30% increase in Total Shareholder Return for the year ended December 31, 2009. At the same time, Management succeeded in transforming the business to become a global leader in loyalty management with a substantially diversified revenue base and geographical reach into many G20 countries, enhancing the Corporation's positioning for future growth. In addition, the Corporation's international growth and diversification over the last several years has resulted in the addition of several new executives to the organization in senior leadership roles and at compensation levels that are commensurate with the roles and responsibilities which they now hold.

In 2010, the Corporation's average executive compensation levels declined relative to 2009, due to lower payouts under the annual incentive plan relative to the prior year, despite the fact that for the year ended December 31, 2010, the Corporation delivered a 32% increase in Total Shareholder Return. Executive compensation levels increased in 2011 relative to 2010 due to increased annual incentive plan payouts.

On a cumulative basis, total cash compensation paid to NEOs over the last five years represents 1.49% of the $1.48 billion of A-EBITDA generated by the Corporation during the period (calculation of five year A-EBITDA is based on IFRS for 2010 and 2011 and on prior Canadian GAAP for 2007, 2008 and 2009). The compensation awarded to Management reflects both fundamental business-building achievements to date, and an incentive to pursue value creation by sustaining a long-term focus on business strategy. In addition, long-term incentive programs fill the purpose of further tying executive compensation to the long-term performance of the Corporation and to shareholders' interests.

- (7) Elizabeth Graham's base salary increased to $400,000 on September 12, 2011.

For the year ended December 31, 2011 the number of PSUs awarded was determined by taking the target PSU value awarded and dividing it by $12.79, which is the average closing price of the Shares on the TSX for March 1, 2 and 3, 2011, the three trading day period following the last day of the black-out period following the announcement of the Corporation's annual financial results.

The number of Options granted was determined by taking the target option award value and dividing it by $3.89, their estimated fair market value on the date of grant. The assumptions used to determine the fair value of Options are based on the binomial options pricing model used to determine the stock-based compensation expense recorded in the Corporation's financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2011 and are as follows: for the Options granted to NEOs, exercise price: $12.79, which represents the average closing price of the Shares on the TSX for March 1, 2 and 3, 2011, the three trading day period following the last day of the black-out period following the announcement of the Corporation's annual financial results; risk-free rate: 3.15%; dividend yield: 3.88%; Share price expected volatility: 36%; expected lifetime (equivalent to the term) of the Options: 7 years.

The total cost of compensation in 2011 to the NEOs represented 2.84% of the Corporation's A-EBITDA for 2011 of $342.2M and 0.47% of the Corporation's market capitalization as at December 31, 2011 of $2.075B.

(1) The value of unexercised in-the-money Options at financial year-end is calculated on outstanding vested and unvested Options and based on the difference between the closing price of the Shares on December 31, 2011 on the TSX ($11.94) and the exercise price. Where the results are negative, a "-" is disclosed.

(2) RSUs granted under the Ongoing LTIP or under the Omnibus Plan; PSUs granted under the Corporation's LTIP; and DSUs granted under the DSU Plan. The numbers shown in this column are the unvested balances in the individual accounts as at December 31, 2011, and include RSUs granted in 2009 and 2010 (for Rupert Duchesne only), and PSUs (for all NEOs) and 50% of DSUs (for all NEOs except David Johnston) granted in 2009, as well as RSUs and DSUs accrued as a result of distributions/dividends reinvested between the grant date and December 31, 2011 and which could be awarded to the NEO upon vesting, subject to Board approval. The numbers include RSUs and PSUs that were approved for vesting by the Board of Directors on February 23, 2012, on recommendation of the HRCC.

(3) The amounts shown in this column are the product of the total number of unvested RSUs, PSUs and DSUs, as applicable, held in the individual accounts as at December 31, 2011 multiplied by the closing price of the Shares on the TSX as of December 31, 2011 ($11.94), assuming target performance metrics will be met. The actual number of RSUs, PSUs and DSUs that could vest is subject to each NEO's continued employment up to the end of the respective cycles, and, with respect to some RSUs and all PSUs, achievement of the Corporation's performance targets for the respective cycles and the Board's approval.

(4) The amounts shown in this column are the product of the total number of vested RSUs and DSUs, as applicable, that have not been paid out or distributed as at December 31, 2011 multiplied by the closing price of the Shares on the TSX as of December 31, 2011 ($11.94).

(1) Employer contribution in 2011 under the Defined Contribution Plan and SERP, as described under "Retirement Plans" on page 40 of this Information Circular and below.

(2) Mr. Johnston, being a UK resident, does not participate in the Defined Contribution Plan or the SERP. The Corporation's contribution to Mr. Johnston's pension arrangement is reported in the "Summary Compensation Table" under "All Other Compensation".

Narrative Discussion

All NEOs based in Canada participate in the Corporation's Defined Contribution Plan. Under this plan, each NEO contributes 7.5% of his/her base salary to the plan annually and the Corporation makes a matching contribution equal to 7.5% of such NEO's base salary on an annual basis.

In the event that the combined employer and employee contributions exceed the money purchase limit as defined in the Income Tax Act (Canada), the Corporation will contribute an amount equal to 15% of the NEO's excess pensionable earnings to the SERP.

NEOs based in the United Kingdom participate in the defined contribution pension plan established for all UK-based employees. Under the plan, the employer matches the employee contribution up to a maximum of 10% of base salary. There is no supplemental retirement plan for UK-based NEOs.

Termination and Change of Control Benefits

Termination Without Cause

All of the NEOs benefit from severance arrangements upon termination without cause.

With the exception of Rupert Duchesne and David Johnston (whose severance arrangements are described below), pursuant to the terms and conditions of their employment agreements, if the employment of a NEO is terminated without cause, the individual is entitled to severance equal to 12 months of base salary, with an additional month per year of continuous service exceeding 12 years, up to an all inclusive maximum of 24 months (subject to a minimum period of 18 months for Mr. Adams) (the “Severance Period”). Each of the NEOs is also entitled to a lump sum cash amount equal to the product of (i) the number of months included in the Severance Period divided by 12; and (ii) the average amount of the bonus, which was paid to the executive in respect of each of the two calendar years preceding termination. In addition, within 30 days following the approval by the Board of Directors of the Corporation’s audited annual financial statements for the year during which the executive was terminated, and provided that the corporate performance during the year of such termination results in the payment of bonuses, he or she will be entitled to an amount equal to the bonus for the calendar year of such termination calculated at target multiplied by the number of days from January 1 of the calendar year of such termination to the date of termination, divided by 365. Furthermore, each of the NEOs will continue to receive basic health, dental and life insurance benefits, as well as an annual spending perquisites allowance, covering items such as certain professional services, supplementary insurances, executive medical services, and company car expenses, with certain exceptions, until the earlier of the expiry of the Severance Period or the date the executive secures alternate employment with comparable perquisites. The executive shall also be deemed to accumulate service during the Severance Period for purposes of the SERP and Defined Contribution Plan and the executive and the Corporation shall continue to make the required contributions to the SERP and Defined Contribution Plan during the Severance Period, in accordance with the terms of the plans.

David Johnston’s employment agreement provides that if his employment is terminated without cause, he will be entitled to severance payments representing 6 months of base salary.

Rupert Duchesne’s employment agreement provides that if his employment is terminated by the Corporation without cause, he is entitled to a lump sum severance payment equal to 24 months of his base salary plus two times the average amount of his bonus received in each of the two calendar years preceding the year of termination, and he will continue to be entitled to the benefits, perquisites and other payments, as described above for the other NEOs, for 24 months following his termination without cause. In addition, within 30 days following the approval by the Board of Directors of the Corporation’s audited annual financial statements for the year during which Rupert Duchesne was terminated, Mr. Duchesne will be entitled to an amount equal to the bonus for the calendar year of such termination multiplied by the number of days from January 1 of the calendar year of such termination to the date of termination, divided by 365.

All of the agreements for the NEOs described above provide for non-compete and non-solicitation restrictions upon termination of employment.

Change in Control Policy

The Corporation’s change in control policy, adopted by the Board of Directors on June 19, 2008 (as amended on August 13, 2009), upon recommendation of the HRCC (the “Change in Control Policy”), is designed to (a) retain certain executive officers of the Corporation (each, a “Specified Executive”) through a period of potential uncertainty; (b) enhance the value of the Corporation and preserve value for Shareholders; (c) preserve the neutrality of the Specified Executives in negotiating and executing a potential Change in Control (as defined in the Change in Control Policy) transaction; (d) ensure that the Specified Executives’ focus is on the best potential outcome for Shareholders; and (e) provide certain arrangements for Specified Executives whose employment with the Corporation is terminated following a Change in Control.

The Change in Control Policy provides that in the event of a Specified Executive’s Termination Due to a Change in Control (defined in the Change in Control Policy as termination without cause during the period commencing thirty (30) days prior to the Change in Control and ending on the date which is eighteen (18) months after the Change in Control), the Specified Executive shall be entitled to receive (a) an amount equal to the Specified Executive's accrued but unpaid annual salary for the period to and including the termination date, together with an amount equal to any accrued but unused vacation entitlement; (b) an amount equal to the annual bonus the Specified Executive would be entitled to receive, prorated until the termination date; (c) a lump sum equal to (i) three times the Specified Executive's annual salary, in the case of the CEO, and (ii) the Specified Executive's annual salary for a period equal to the product of: (A) 12 months, with an additional month per year of continuous service exceeding 12 years; and (B) one and a half, up to an all inclusive maximum period of 24 months, in the case of an Executive Vice-President or a Senior Vice-President; (d) a lump sum equal to (i) three times the Specified Executive's average annual bonus, in the case of the CEO, and (ii) in the case of an Executive Vice-President or a Senior Vice-President, the product of (A) the Specified Executive's average annual bonus paid in the last two fiscal years prior to the Change in Control by (B) the number of months included in the Severance Period of such Specified Executive, divided by 12; (e) the perquisites listed in the Specified Executive's employment agreement, for a period equivalent to the earlier of the end of the Severance Period or the date the Specified Executive secures alternate employment with comparable perquisites; (f) coverage under all group, life, medical, dental, supplementary life, annual health spending and similar account benefits listed in the Specified Executive's employment agreement for a period equivalent to the earlier of the end of the Severance Period or the date the Specified Executive secures alternate employment with comparable benefits; (g) reimbursement for all expenses incurred, in accordance with the Corporation's expense reimbursement policy; (h) subject to the terms of any applicable indemnification agreements, maintenance of coverage for the maximum extended reporting period available under any directors' and officers' liability insurance that is in place at the time of the termination; and (i) the executive shall also be deemed to accumulate service during the Severance Period for purposes of the SERP and Defined Contribution Plan and the executive and the Corporation shall continue to make the required contributions to the SERP and Defined Contribution Plan during the Severance Period, in accordance with the terms of the plans. Such entitlements under the Change in Control Policy are conditional upon the Specified Executive's compliance with obligations related to loyalty, confidentiality, non-disclosure, ownership of intellectual property, files and other property as well as obligations related to non-competition and non-solicitation for the duration of the severance period.

In the event of a Specified Executive's termination due to a Change in Control, except for the CEO, no Options held by the Specified Executive shall be accelerated or become otherwise vested; any unvested PSU awards granted pursuant to the Corporation LTIP (or any other future similar plan) will be deemed to have vested on a pro-rata basis as of the termination date; and the Specified Executive shall be entitled to payments under any deferred compensation, pension or supplementary retirement plans offered by the Corporation, to the extent the Specified Executive participates in such plans and subject to the terms contained therein.

In the event of the termination of the CEO due to a Change in Control, notwithstanding any provisions of the Corporation LTIP (or any other future similar plan), all unvested outstanding Options shall immediately become fully vested and exercisable as of the termination date. Upon Resignation of the CEO following a Change in Control (defined in the Change in Control Policy as resignation within twelve (12) months after the date of the Change in Control), the CEO shall be entitled to all payments, benefits, and rights under the Change in Control Policy, with the exception that he shall only be entitled to a reduced lump sum payment, as described in (e) above, of two times his annual salary and two year average annual bonus. Any unvested Options would be forfeited and any unvested PSUs would be paid on a pro-rata basis assuming target performance metrics had been met. Similarly, Mr. Adams' employment contract specifies that, subject to his continued employment with the Corporation for at least six months after the Change in Control date, in the event of his Resignation Following a Change in Control, as defined in the Change in Control Policy, Mr. Adams would be entitled to 18 months' severance benefits and in such instance, no vesting acceleration would apply to any outstanding unvested Options and PSUs.

- (1) Upon retirement or termination without cause, in the case of RSUs awarded pursuant to the Omnibus Plan, any outstanding unvested RSUs will be prorated based on the number of full months worked during the performance cycle and will be paid based on the achievement of the performance targets, if any, as determined by the Board of Directors on the vesting date. The amounts presented herein represent the value of the total number of unvested RSUs outstanding on December 31, 2011 prorated based on the number of months in each respective performance cycle up to December 31, 2011 and assuming target performance metrics, if any, are fully satisfied. The amounts presented will only be paid if target performance metrics are subsequently achieved at the end of the cycle. In the case of Mr. Duchesne, in the event of his termination without cause or resignation for good reason, the number of months included in the pro-rata vesting of the 50,000 time vesting RSUs he has received in each of 2009 and 2010 includes the sum of i) the number of months in each respective performance cycle up to December 31, 2011 and ii) the 24 months' severance period entitlement.
- (2) PSU award agreements indicate that plan participants must be active employees on the vesting date to receive payouts under the plan. Any pro-rata vesting upon termination would be at the discretion of the Board of Directors.
- (3) The estimated severance benefits are calculated based on the executive officers' 2011 annual base salary, the 2-year average bonus paid for fiscal years 2010 and 2011, the perquisites and, with the exception of Rupert Duchesne's severance entitlement other than pursuant to a Change in Control, the Corporation's contributions to the NEO's Defined Contribution Plan and SERP or government-sponsored pension scheme paid in 2011. Severance benefits would also include the continuance of group benefits for the shorter of the duration of the severance period or the period from the termination date to the date the NEO secures alternate employment. The value of such group benefits is not included in the above estimated severance payments presented in the table.
- (4) The NEO is also entitled to the payment of any accrued but unpaid annual salary and prorated bonus for the period up to and including the termination date. For 2011, these amounts are fully disclosed in the "Summary Compensation Table" and therefore not included in the estimated severance benefits presented in this table.
- (5) In the event of his termination without cause or resignation for good reason, Rupert Duchesne is entitled to 24 months' severance benefits calculated on the basis described in Notes (3) and (4) above.
- (6) In the event of his termination, without cause or resignation for good reason, David L. Adams is entitled to severance benefits calculated on the basis described in Notes (3) and (4) above, for a severance period equivalent to 18 months.
- (7) In the event of his termination, without cause, David Johnston is entitled to a severance payment equivalent to 6 months' base salary. No bonus amount would be payable for the year of the termination of employment. No severance amount is payable in the event of his resignation.
- (8) In the event of their termination without cause or resignation for good reason, Vince Timpano and Elizabeth Graham are entitled to severance benefits calculated on the basis described in Notes (3) and (4) above, for a severance period equivalent to 12 months plus 1 month per year of service exceeding 12 years, up to a maximum severance period of 24 months.
- (9) Unvested Options outstanding at the termination date would be forfeited. Any exercisable Options outstanding at the termination date would expire on the earlier of thirty (30) days after the termination date and the original expiry date.
- (10) Upon a Change in Control, any outstanding unvested RSUs awarded pursuant to the Omnibus Plan would become fully vested. In addition, if a Change in Control occurs prior to January 1, 2013, Mr. Duchesne's employment agreement provides for 20,000 additional RSUs to be granted for each calendar year from 2007 up to the date of the Change in Control and consequently, the amount that would have been paid with respect to the accelerated vesting of RSUs differs from the market value of RSUs included in the Share-based Awards presented for Rupert Duchesne under "Incentive Plan Awards - Outstanding Share-based Awards and Option-based Awards".
- (11) No vesting acceleration would have applied to any Options outstanding had a Change in Control occurred on December 31, 2011, unless the Board, to protect the rights of the participant, would have decided, at its discretion and if it had considered it appropriate in the circumstances, to change the vesting conditions or the expiry date of any Options outstanding on the date of the Change in Control.
- (12) In the event of his Resignation Following a Change in Control as defined in the Change in Control Policy and described under "Termination and Change of Control Benefits – Change in Control Policy", Mr. Duchesne would be entitled to 24 months' severance benefits calculated on the basis described in Notes (3) and (4) above and in such instance, any unvested PSUs would have been paid on a pro-rata basis assuming target performance metrics had been met with the balance forfeited. No vesting acceleration would apply to any outstanding unvested Options. Similarly, the DSU Plan does not provide for the acceleration of DSU vesting.

- (13) Mr. Adams' employment contract specifies that, subject to his continued employment with the Corporation for at least six months after the Change in Control date, in the event of his Resignation Following a Change in Control, as defined in the Change in Control Policy and described under "Termination and Change of Control Benefits – Change in Control Policy", Mr. Adams would be entitled to 18 months' severance benefits (calculated on the basis described in Notes (3) and (4) above) and in such instance, no vesting acceleration would apply to any outstanding unvested PSUs, Options and DSUs.
- (14) In the event of their resignation other than for good reason, NEOs, with the exception of Mr. Duchesne and Mr. Adams, as described in Notes (15) and (16) respectively, are not entitled to any severance benefits. Furthermore, any outstanding unvested RSUs, PSUs, DSUs and Options would be forfeited as of the resignation date.
- (15) In the event of their Termination Due to a Change in Control as defined in the Change in Control Policy and described under "Termination and Change of Control Benefits – Change in Control Policy", the NEOs, other than Mr. Duchesne, would be entitled to severance benefits for a period of 12 months plus 1 month per year of service in excess of 12 years, multiplied by 1.5, up to a maximum of 24 months. Based on their service with the Corporation on December 31, 2011, Mr. Adams', Mr. Johnston's and Mr. Timpano's severance period would have been 18 months and Mrs. Graham's severance period would have been 24 months. Mr. Duchesne's severance period pursuant to the Change in Control Policy would have been 36 months. The severance amounts would be calculated on the basis described in Notes (3) and (4) above.
- (16) Had a Termination Due to a Change in Control, as defined in the Change in Control Policy and described under "Termination and Change of Control Benefits – Change in Control Policy" occurred on December 31, 2011, any outstanding unvested Options held by Mr. Duchesne would have become vested, whether or not any performance condition had been met. Mr. Duchesne's outstanding Options as at December 31, 2011 are out-of-the-money on that date. The Options held by other NEOs would not have been accelerated or otherwise vested.
- (17) The amount represents the pro-rata vesting of all PSUs outstanding and unvested on December 31, 2011, assuming target performance metrics would have been met.
- (18) Neither the DSU Plan nor the Change in Control Policy provide for the accelerated vesting of DSUs pursuant to a Termination Due to a Change in Control as defined in the Change in Control Policy and described under "Termination and Change of Control Benefits – Change in Control Policy" above. The Board could, however, make such provision for the protection of the rights of the participants as the Board in its discretion considers appropriate in the circumstances.

Compensation of Directors

Narrative Discussion

The compensation structure of the Board of Directors is designed to attract and retain highly talented and experienced directors, leading to the long-term success of the Corporation. This requires that Directors be adequately and competitively compensated. The Board of Directors has determined that the directors of the Corporation should be compensated in a form and amount which is customary for comparable corporations, having regard for such matters as time commitment, responsibility and trends in director compensation. As part of its mandate, the Governance and Nominating Committee reviews on a regular basis the adequacy and form of Director compensation.

Summary of Board Compensation

During the 2011 financial year, Directors received a base annual retainer of $45,000 while the Chairman of the Board received an annual retainer of $200,000. Except for the Chairman of the Board who is granted 8,000 DSUs per year (issued quarterly), Directors are also granted 1,500 DSUs per year (issued quarterly) and are awarded meeting fees for Board and Committee meetings of $1,500 per meeting (whether in person or by phone).

Directors also received additional retainers of $15,000, $7,500 and $10,000 if they chair the Audit Committee, the Governance and Nominating Committee or the HRCC, respectively. Members of the Audit Committee, the Governance and Nominating Committee and the HRCC received additional retainers of $5,000, $2,500 and $2,500, respectively.

Directors can elect yearly to receive up to one hundred percent (100%) of their base annual retainer, Committee retainer and meeting fees in DSUs. Please refer to the section of this Information Circular "Appendix D – The Corporation Deferred Share Unit Plan" for a description of the DSU Plan.

The Directors also received Aeroplan Program membership privileges and a discretionary travel award of up to $20,000 per year on STAR Alliance carriers and were reimbursed for travel and out-of-pocket expenses incurred in attending meetings of the Board of Directors or the Committees, as applicable.

Director Share Ownership Requirements

The Corporation's shareholding guidelines for directors (the "Shareholding Guidelines for Directors") were adopted by the Board of Directors on November 14, 2008 and are designed to promote Share ownership by Directors to better align their interests with those of Shareholders.

The Shareholding Guidelines for Directors require Directors to hold Shares or DSUs with an aggregate minimum value (the "Minimum Share Ownership Value for Directors") at least equal to (i) the lesser of two times the annual retainer and 25,000 Shares and DSUs, in the case of the Chairman of the Board of Directors; and (ii) the lesser of three times the annual retainer and 8,000 Shares and DSUs, in the case of any other Director, within a four-year period starting at the later of (a) November 14, 2008; and (b) the first election of the Director to the Board. Directors are not permitted to purchase financial instruments that are designed to hedge or offset a decline in value of the Corporation's Securities granted as compensation or held, directly or indirectly, by Directors.

The extent to which the Minimum Share Ownership Value for Directors is achieved will be evaluated annually at the end of each financial year. Until the Minimum Share Ownership Value for Directors has been achieved, fifty percent (50%) of a Director's annual base retainer will be paid in DSUs.

As at the date hereof, all Directors comply with the Shareholding Guidelines for Directors. As Mr. Duchesne is CEO, he does not receive an annual retainer for his services to the Board of Directors. Pursuant to his employment agreement, Mr. Duchesne must achieve a minimum ownership level of Shares, Time-Vesting RSUs and DSUs equal to four times his salary by June 1, 2012. As at the date hereof, Mr. Duchesne meets the Corporation's Shareholding Guidelines for Executives.

Succession Planning

The Corporation has in place a succession plan identifying and developing successors from our most talented individuals for the CEO, senior management and other positions deemed critical for the success of the Corporation. Each year the CEO reviews with the HRCC the internal talent pool considered for these positions. The HRCC assists with candidate selection, development and performance evaluation as well as planning for illness, disability and other unscheduled absences. In addition, the Board of Directors regularly interacts with the members of the executive management team and knows them and their capabilities well. The Board of Directors also meets key staff members through their participation in meetings and presentations to the Board of Directors and its Committees, and informally through a variety of social events designed to allow Directors to get to know members of Management who are potential future leaders of the Corporation.

Orientation and Continuing Education

The Corporation has in place an orientation program for new Directors of the Corporation. New Directors are invited to attend orientation sessions with members of senior management as well as with the CEO to improve their understanding of the business. Each new Director also receives an orientation binder with important information relating to the strategy and operations of the various the Corporation businesses, including the Board approved budget and corporate plan. New Directors are also asked to review the Charter of the Board of Directors, the Charter of each Committee, the position descriptions of the Chairman of the Board of Directors, the CEO and the Chair of each Committee, the Code of Ethics and Business Conduct, the Trading Guidelines and the Disclosure Policy of the Corporation in order to fully grasp the role he or she is expected to play as a Director and/or Committee member.

The Board of Directors recognizes the importance of ongoing director education. Directors are surveyed at least annually to determine areas of interest and this information is used to develop the continuous education program. The Directors regularly meet with Management and are given periodic presentations on the Corporation's business units and recent business developments. The presentation subjects are determined in part from education topics suggested by Directors. Also, the Chair of the Board of Directors invites Directors to attend dinners on the evening before regularly scheduled Board meetings. Regularly at these dinners the Board meets with senior-decision makers within the Corporation in order to get to know them better and to enhance the Board's understanding of the business and affairs of the Corporation. In June of 2011, the Board also held a day and a half strategic session in London, U.K., with members of the executive team and certain senior leaders of the regional business teams. In addition, in order to facilitate Directors' professional development, the Corporation encourages and funds attendance at seminars or conferences of interest and relevance.

AN ORIENTATION PROGRAM FOR NEW DIRECTORS IS IN PLACE AND PERIODIC PRESENTATIONS ON THE CORPORATION'S BUSINESS ARE GIVEN TO THE DIRECTORS. FUNDING IS AVAILABLE TO ENCOURAGE DIRECTOR EDUCATION.

Public Disclosure Policy

The Corporation is committed to maintaining high standards regarding disclosure issues. The Board of Directors has adopted a Public Disclosure Policy (the "Public Disclosure Policy") to confirm in writing the Corporation's disclosure policies and practices that have been and continue to be in place and to which Management adheres. The objective of the Public Disclosure Policy is to provide guidelines with respect to the dissemination and disclosure of information to the financial community and investors which seek to ensure (i) communications that are timely, accurate and broadly disseminated in accordance with and otherwise responsive to applicable legislation, and (ii) sound disclosure practices which maintain the confidence of the financial community, including investors, in the integrity of the Corporation information.

The Board of Directors has also established a disclosure policy committee, (the "Disclosure Committee") responsible for overseeing the Corporation's disclosure practices and implementing and monitoring the effectiveness of, and compliance with, the Public Disclosure Policy; such committee consists of the CEO, the EVP & CFO, the COO and President & CEO of US and APAC, the Senior Vice President, General Counsel and Corporate Secretary and the Senior Vice President, Global Brand, Communications and External Affairs. The Disclosure Committee reviews and updates, as appropriate, the Public Disclosure Policy, on an annual basis or as needed to ensure compliance with changing regulatory requirements. The Disclosure Committee reports to the Audit Committee, on an annual basis or at such other time, as deemed appropriate by the Audit Committee, with respect to the Public Disclosure Policy.

A copy of the Public Disclosure Policy is available on the Corporation's website at www.aimia.com.

Trading Guidelines

The Board of Directors has also adopted trading guidelines which set out guidelines on trading of Shares (or any other securities of the Corporation) for any person with knowledge of privileged information about the Corporation or any of its operating entities.

As a general principle, Covered Persons may only purchase or sell Shares (or any other securities of the Corporation) during the period commencing after two (2) full trading days after the Corporation's quarterly or annual results have been disseminated by means of a press release and ending on the last day of the then current quarter. For purposes of the trading guidelines, "Covered Persons" means directors, officers and senior management of the Corporation or any of its operating entities and anyone else who would reasonably be expected to have access to privileged information during periods when financial statements are being prepared but results have not yet been publicly disclosed. No employee of, or anyone having access to privileged information of the Corporation shall trade on the Shares (or any other securities of the Corporation) while in possession of privileged information of any kind (related to financial results or other matters), until such privileged information has been generally disclosed to the public by way of a press release.

Directors, as well as employees who are subject to the Shareholding Guidelines for Executives are not permitted to purchase financial instruments that are designed to hedge or offset a decrease in market value of the Corporation's securities granted as compensation or held, directly or indirectly, by such employees.

A copy of the Corporation's trading guidelines is available on the Corporation's website at www.aimia.com.

Code of Ethics and Business Conduct

The Corporation has adopted a Code of Ethics and Business Conduct (the "Code"). The Code applies to all Directors and officers and employees of the Corporation. The Code includes a number of guiding principles, such as integrity and confidentiality, and covers a variety of subjects such as:

- (a) conflicts of interest;
- (b) use of the Corporation's assets;
- (c) privacy and confidentiality; and
- (d) fair dealing with other people and organizations.

The Governance and Nominating Committee has the responsibility for monitoring compliance with and interpreting the Code. The Code has been communicated or brought to the attention of all employees of the Corporation. In addition, all employees and Directors of the Corporation are required to complete an acknowledgement form whereby they undertake to comply with the guidelines and principles of the Code. The Corporation uses a confidential and anonymous reporting system that allows employees to report suspected violations of the Code through the internet or a telephone hotline. The Board of Directors has concluded that such measures foster a culture of ethical conduct within the Corporation and are appropriate and sufficient to ensure compliance with the Code. Management prepares reports for the Governance and Nominating Committee noting any alleged violations, on a quarterly basis. Since the adoption of the Code, the Corporation has not filed any material change report pertaining to any conduct of a Director or executive officer of the Corporation that would constitute a departure from the Code. The Code and the process for administering it is reviewed by the Governance and Nominating Committee on an annual basis.

In addition to the relevant provisions of the Canada Business Corporations Act applicable to Directors, the Charter of the Board of Directors provides that the Directors shall disclose all actual or potential conflicts of interest and refrain from voting on matters in which the Director has a conflict of interest. The Charter also provides that a Director shall excuse himself or herself from any discussion or decision on any matter in which the Director is precluded from voting as a result of a conflict of interest or which otherwise affects his or her personal, business or professional interests.

Nomination of Directors

The Governance and Nominating Committee is composed entirely of independent Directors of the Corporation. It is responsible for considering and making recommendations on the desired size of the Board of Directors, the need for recruitment and the expected skill-set of new candidates. In consultation with the Chairman of the Board of Directors and the CEO, the Governance and Nominating Committee determines the expected skill-set of new candidates by taking into account the existing strength of the Board of Directors and the needs of the Corporation. The Governance and Nominating Committee then reviews and recommends the candidates for nomination as Directors and approves the final choice of candidates for nomination and election as Directors by the Shareholders. Directors must have an appropriate mix of skills, knowledge and experience in business and an understanding of the industry and the geographical areas in which the Corporation operates. Directors selected should be able to commit the requisite time for all of the applicable board's business. The Governance and Nominating Committee maintains a list of potential director candidates for its future consideration and may engage outside advisors to assist in identifying potential candidates.

The HRCC, which is composed entirely of independent Directors, is accountable on behalf of the Board to determine the compensation for the executive officers of the Corporation and to recommend to the Board the remuneration package for the CEO. The process the HRCC uses for these determinations can be found under the section "Statement of Executive Compensation – Compensation Discussion and Analysis" of this Information Circular.

Assessments

The Governance and Nominating Committee assumes the responsibility of assessing the effectiveness of the Board of Directors, the Committees and the contribution of individual Directors on an annual basis.

THE BOARD ASSESSMENT PROCESS IS CONDUCTED ON AN ANNUAL BASIS.

The Governance and Nominating Committee has the mandate and responsibility to review, on an annual basis, the performance and effectiveness of the Board of Directors as a whole and each individual Director. The Chair of the Governance and Nominating Committee annually approves and distributes a comprehensive questionnaire to each member of the Board of Directors regarding various aspects of board and individual performance. The questionnaire covers a wide range of issues, including the operation and effectiveness of the Board of Directors and its Committees, the level of knowledge of the Directors relating to the business of the Corporation and the risks it faces, and the contribution of individual Directors, and allows for comments and suggestions. The Chair of the Governance and Nominating Committee compiles responses to the questionnaire and prepares a report to the Governance and Nominating Committee which provides a report to the full Board. The Governance and Nominating Committee may then recommend changes based upon such feedback to enhance Board and Committee performance or refer any areas requiring follow-up to the relevant Committees.

APPENDIX A

CHARTER OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

I. PURPOSE

This charter describes the role of the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of Groupe Aeroplan Inc., doing business as “Aimia” (the “Corporation”).

This charter is subject to the provisions of the Corporation’s articles of incorporation and by-laws and to applicable laws. This charter is not intended to limit, enlarge or change in any way the responsibilities of the Board as determined by such articles, by-laws and applicable laws. Directors are elected or appointed by the shareholders of the Corporation and together with those appointed to fill vacancies or appointed as additional directors throughout the year, collectively constitute the Board.

II. ROLE

The Board is responsible for the stewardship of the Corporation and its business and is accountable for the performance of the Corporation.

The Board shall establish the overall policies for the Corporation, monitor and evaluate the Corporation’s strategic direction, and retain plenary power for those functions not specifically delegated by it to its Committees or to Management. Accordingly, in addition to the duties of directors of a Canadian corporation as prescribed by applicable laws, the Board shall supervise the management of the business and affairs of the Corporation with a view to evaluate, on an ongoing basis, whether the Corporation’s resources are being managed with integrity and in a manner consistent with ethical considerations and stakeholder’s interests and in order to enhance shareholder value. In discharging their duties, directors must act honestly and in good faith, with a view to the best interests of the Corporation. Directors must exercise the care, diligence and skill that a reasonably prudent person would exercise in comparable circumstances.

III. COMPOSITION

Selection

The Board shall be comprised of that number of directors as shall be determined from time to time by the Board upon recommendation of the Governance and Nominating Committee of the Board.

The Governance and Nominating Committee of the Board shall maintain an overview of the desired size of the Board, the need for recruitment and the expected skill-set of new candidates. The Governance and Nominating Committee shall review and recommend to the Board candidates for nomination as directors of the Corporation. The Board approves the final choice of the candidates that are to be elected as directors of the Corporation by its shareholders.

Board members must have an appropriate mix of skills, knowledge and experience in business and an understanding of the industry and the geographical areas in which the Corporation operates. Directors selected should be able to commit the requisite time for all of the Board’s business.

Chairman

A Chairman of the Board shall be appointed by the Board. The Board currently believes that it is in the best interest of the Corporation and its shareholders that the offices of Chairman of the Board and CEO be separate. The Chairman’s responsibilities shall include the following, in addition to the Chairman’s responsibilities pursuant to legislation and the Corporation’s articles and by-laws as well as those which may be assigned to him from time to time by the Board:

- (a) ensuring that the responsibilities of the Board are well understood by the Board;
- (b) ensuring that the Board works as a cohesive team and providing the requisite leadership to enhance Board effectiveness and ensure that the Board's agenda will enable it to successfully carry out its duties;

- (h) chairing every shareholders' meeting and meetings of the Board and encouraging free and open discussions at such meetings.

Independence

A majority of the Board shall be composed of directors who must be determined to have no material relationship with the Corporation and who, in the reasonable opinion of the Board, must be unrelated and independent under the laws, regulations and listing requirements to which the Corporation is subject.

Criteria for Board Membership

Board members are expected to possess the following characteristics and traits:

- (a) demonstrate high ethical standards and integrity in their personal and professional dealings;
- (b) act honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interest of the Corporation;
- (c) devote sufficient time to the affairs of the Corporation and exercise care, diligence and skill in fulfilling their responsibilities both as Board members and as a Committee members;

- (g) make all reasonable efforts to attend all Board and Committee meetings; and
- (h) review the materials provided by Management in advance of the Board and Committee meetings.

Retirement Age for Directors

The policy of the Board is that no person shall be appointed or elected as a director if the person exceeds 75 years of age. The policy allows for an exception where the Board determines it is in the interest of the Corporation to request a director to extend his/her term beyond the regular retirement age, provided however that such extension is requested in one-year increments.

IV. COMPENSATION

The Board has determined that the directors should be compensated in a form and amount which is appropriate and which is customary for comparable corporations, having regard for such matters as time commitment, responsibility and trends in director compensation.

Without limiting the Board's governance obligations, general Board responsibilities shall include the following:

- (a) discussing and developing the Corporation's approach to corporate governance, with the involvement of the Governance and Nominating Committee;
- (b) declaring and approving dividends paid by the Corporation;

- (r) conducting, through the Governance and Nominating Committee, an annual assessment of the Board and its Committees;
- (s) selecting, upon the recommendation of the Governance and Nominating Committee, the candidates that are to be nominated as directors of the Corporation;
- (t) selecting a Chairman of the Board; and
- (u) ensuring, with the Governance and Nominating Committee, that the Board as a whole, the Committees of the Board and each of the directors are capable of carrying out and do carry out their roles effectively.

VI. MEETINGS

The Board shall meet at least quarterly, with additional meetings scheduled as required. Such additional meetings may be held at the request of any director with notice given to all directors of the Board. Each director has a responsibility to attend and participate in meetings of the Board. The Chairman of the Board shall approve the agenda for Board meetings. The Corporate Secretary shall distribute the meeting agenda and minutes to the Board.

Information and materials that are important to the Board's understanding of the agenda items and related topics shall be distributed in advance of a meeting. The Corporation shall deliver information on the business, operations and finances of the Corporation to the Board on an as-required basis.

On the occasion of each regularly scheduled Board meeting and at other times as they may wish, non-Management Directors shall hold "in camera" sessions, in the absence of members of Management.

VII. DECISIONS REQUIRING PRIOR BOARD APPROVAL

In addition to those specific matters requiring prior Board approval pursuant to the Corporation's by-laws or applicable laws, the Board shall be responsible for approving the following:

- (a) interim and annual financial statements, provided that the Board may delegate to the Audit, Finance and Risk Committee the responsibility to review such financial statements and make its recommendations to the Board;
- (b) strategic plans, business plans and capital expenditure budgets;
- (c) raising of debt or equity capital and other major financial activities;
- (d) hiring, compensation and succession for the CEO and other senior executives;

- (f) material acquisitions and divestitures; and
- (g) major corporate policies.

VIII. BOARD COMMITTEES

There are three Committees of the Board: the Audit, Finance and Risk Committee, the Governance and Nominating Committee and the Human Resources and Compensation Committee. The roles and responsibilities of each Committee are described in the respective Committee charters.

Members of the Audit, Finance and Risk Committee, the Human Resources and Compensation Committee and the Governance and Nominating Committee shall be independent as required under the charter of each Committee and the laws, regulations and listing requirements to which the Corporation is subject.

IX. COMMUNICATION WITH THE BOARD

Shareholders of the Corporation and other constituencies may communicate with the Board and individual board members by contacting Shareholder Relations.

X. ADVISORS

The Board has determined that any individual director who wishes to engage a non-Management advisor to assist on matters involving such director's responsibilities as a director at the expense of the Corporation should have his or her request reviewed by, and obtain the authorization of, the Chairman of the Board.

XI. OTHER MATTERS

The Board expects directors as well as officers and employees of the Corporation to act ethically at all times and to acknowledge their adherence to the policies comprising the Code of Ethics and Business Conduct (the "Code"). The Board, with the assistance of the Governance and Nominating Committee, is responsible for monitoring compliance with the Code.

Directors shall disclose all actual or potential conflicts of interest and refrain from voting on matters in which the director has a conflict of interest. In addition, a director shall excuse himself or herself from any discussion or decision on any matter in which the director is precluded from voting as a result of a conflict of interest or which otherwise affects his or her personal, business or professional interests.

APPENDIX D

INCENTIVE PLANS

This appendix provides details regarding the Corporation's Long-Term Incentive Plan, Deferred Share Unit Plan and Prior Long-Term Incentive Plans.

The Corporation Long-Term Incentive Plan

General Terms Applicable to PSUs and Options

The Corporation LTIP has replaced all prior long term incentive plans as the Corporation's principal long-term incentive plan for all new grants. The plan is designed to provide eligible participants with incentive compensation that enhances the Corporation's ability to attract, retain and motivate the key contributors who will drive the Corporation's long-term business success and to reward executives and other critical employees for significant performance that results in the Corporation meeting or exceeding its performance targets over the long-term. The plan is also designed to align participants' interests with those of shareholders by delivering awards which are either settled in shares of the Corporation or which track the value of the Corporation's shares.

The Corporation LTIP permits the granting of options ("Options") and performance share units ("PSUs") to eligible participants of the Corporation and its subsidiaries. The Corporation LTIP is administered by the HRCC.

A maximum of 9,998,440 Shares is reserved and available for grant and issuable pursuant to the Corporation LTIP, which represents approximately 5.7% of the Shares issued and outstanding as at March 16, 2012. As at December 31, 2011, Shares to be issued pursuant to the exercise of outstanding Options represented 2.3% of all of the Corporation's issued and outstanding Shares. As per the Corporation LTIP, the value of PSUs realized upon achievement of performance vesting conditions can be settled in cash or purchase of shares on the secondary market, at the determination of the Board.

The Corporation LTIP provides that (i) the aggregate number of Shares reserved for issuance at any time to any one participant shall not exceed five percent (5%) of the issued and outstanding Shares at such time and that (ii) the aggregate number of Shares (a) issued to insiders and associates of such insiders under the Corporation LTIP or any other proposed or established share compensation arrangement within any one-year period and (b) issuable to insiders and associates of such insider at any time under the Corporation LTIP or any other proposed or established share compensation arrangement, shall in each case not exceed five percent (5%) of the issued and outstanding Shares.

Options or PSUs granted or awarded under the Corporation LTIP may not be assigned or transferred with the exception of an assignment made to a personal representative of a deceased participant.

Specific Terms Related to the Options

The Board of Directors or the HRCC will (i) set the term of the Options granted under the Corporation LTIP which term cannot exceed ten (10) years and (ii) fix the vesting terms of Options as it deems appropriate at the time of the grant of such Options. Should the expiration date for an Option fall within a Black-Out Period (as defined in the Corporation LTIP) or within nine business days following the expiration of a Black-Out Period, the expiry date of the Option shall be extended until that date which is the tenth business day following the end of the Black-Out Period.

The exercise price of any Options granted pursuant to the Corporation LTIP will be determined by the Board of Directors or the HRCC at the time of the grant, provided that the exercise price shall not be less than the market value of the Shares at the time of the grant which shall be, if the grant is made during a Black-Out Period, the average closing price of the Shares on the TSX for the three trading day period following the last day of such Black-Out Period. If the grant is made outside a Black-Out Period, the market value of the Shares shall be the average closing price of the Shares on the TSX for the five trading day period ending on the last trading day before the day on which the Option is granted.

The decision to grant Options and the number of Options granted is not tied to any performance objective and is subject to the Board's discretion. Options granted in 2011 were subject to the following conditions:

- 7 year term to expiry; and
- 25% vesting per year over 4 years.

While under the Corporation LTIP performance vesting conditions may be attached to Option awards, all Option awards granted in 2011 contained only time-based vesting conditions.

Specific Terms Related to the PSUs

PSUs will be granted to eligible participants, from time to time, in the sole discretion of the Board of Directors or the HRCC.

The Board of Directors or the HRCC will fix the period during which PSUs may vest which period shall not exceed three (3) years after the calendar year in which the PSU is granted (the "Restriction Period"). Each PSU grant will be subject to certain vesting conditions, including performance criteria, such conditions to be determined by the Board of Directors or the HRCC and to be provided to the participant under a separate agreement.

The Board of Directors, upon recommendation of the HRCC, approved the adoption of corporate consolidated A-EBITDA growth as the basis for performance vesting conditions.

Consequently, the vesting of PSUs awarded in 2011 is subject to the following conditions and schedule:

- 1/6th of the award may vest at the end of each year in the three-year cycle, based on the achievement of the Corporation's consolidated annual A-EBITDA in each respective year;
- The remaining 1/2 of the award may vest at the end of the three-year cycle based on the achievement of the Corporation's consolidated cumulative A-EBITDA over the three-year period;
- The vested PSUs only become payable at the end of the three-year cycle, subject to the participant's continued employment with the Corporation until the end of the cycle; and
- The vesting threshold is achievement of 80% of the target, vesting at 50% of the value, increasing linearly to 100%.

The participant will be entitled to receive, as soon as possible upon confirmation by the Board of Directors or the HRCC that the vesting conditions (including the performance criteria) have been met, payment for each awarded PSU in the form of Shares, cash, or a combination of Shares and cash, at the discretion of the Board of Directors or the HRCC. For the purposes of such payment, the market value of Shares shall be the average closing price of the Shares on the TSX for the five trading day period ending on the last trading day before the day on which the payment is made.

Treatment Upon Termination of Employment – Options

Unless the Board of Directors or the HRCC decides otherwise, Options granted under the Corporation LTIP will expire at the earlier of the expiration of the original term of the Option and (i) the date on which the Corporation provides notice to a participant that his or her employment has been terminated for cause; (ii) twelve (12) months after the participant's death; (iii) three (3) years after the participant's employment has been terminated by reason of injury or disability or after retirement of a participant; (iv) twelve (12) months after the date of a leave of absence for a period of more than one (1) year authorized by the Corporation; or (v) thirty (30) days following the participant's termination of employment for any other reason.

Treatment Upon Termination of Employment – PSUs

Unless the Board of Directors or the HRCC decides otherwise, upon a participant's (i) death; (ii) termination of employment for reason of injury or disability; (iii) retirement; (iv) leave of absence for a period of more than one (1) year authorized by the Corporation; (v) termination of employment for reasons other than for cause; or (vi) ceasing to be an eligible participant for a reason other than those already mentioned, the participant's participation in the Corporation LTIP in respect of PSUs shall be immediately terminated, provided, however, that all unvested PSUs shall remain in effect until the end of the applicable Restriction Period. At the end of such Restriction Period, the Board of Directors or the HRCC will evaluate whether the vesting conditions and performance criteria were met in order to determine the amount of the payment to which the participant is entitled, if any, in accordance with the following formula:

Number of PSUs outstanding in the participant's account	X	Number of completed months during the applicable Restriction Period, as of the date of the participant's termination or retirement
		Total number of months included in the applicable Restriction Period

Notwithstanding the information presented in the table above, the Board of Directors or the HRCC may incorporate terms into the vesting conditions which state that plan participants must be active employees on the payment date in order to be eligible for payment. Upon a participant's employment being terminated for cause, the participant's participation in the Corporation LTIP shall be immediately terminated and all PSUs credited to such participant's account that have not vested shall be forfeited and cancelled.

Impact of a Change of Control

Subject to the provisions contained in any employment agreement between a holder of PSUs and/or Options and the Corporation and the Change in Control Policy described on page 59, if (i) any person becomes the beneficial owner, directly or indirectly, of 50% or more of either the issued and outstanding Shares or the combined voting power of the Corporation's then outstanding voting securities entitled to vote generally; (ii) any person acquires, directly or indirectly, securities to which is attached the right to elect the majority of the directors of the Corporation; (iii) the Corporation undergoes a liquidation or dissolution or sells all or substantially all of its assets; or (iv) the Corporation is involved in, or becomes subject to, a reorganization, an amalgamation, an arrangement, a take-over bid (as that term is defined in the Securities Act (Québec)) for all of the Shares or the sale or disposition of all or substantially all of the property and assets of the Corporation, the Board of Directors may make such provision for the protection of the rights of the participants as the Board of Directors, in its discretion, considers appropriate in the circumstances, including, without limitation, changing the vesting for the Options and/or the date on which any Option expires or the Restriction Period for the PSUs.

Amendment Provisions of the Corporation LTIP

The Corporation LTIP includes an amendment procedure pursuant to which the Board may amend the Corporation LTIP or any Option or PSU outstanding under the Corporation LTIP, provided that such amendment shall: (a) not adversely alter or impair any Option or PSU previously granted, except for certain adjustments in the case of changes affecting the Shares ("Shares Adjustments"); (b) be subject to any regulatory approvals including, where required, the approval of the TSX; and (c) be subject to shareholder approval, where required by law or the requirements of the TSX. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Board shall be required to obtain shareholder approval to make the following amendments: (a) any change to the maximum number of Shares issuable from treasury under the Corporation LTIP, including an increase to the fixed maximum number of Shares or a change from a fixed maximum number of Shares to a fixed maximum percentage, except in case of Shares Adjustments; (b) any amendment which reduces the exercise price of any Option after the Option has been granted or any cancellation of an Option and the substitution of that Option by a new Option with a reduced price, except in the case of Shares Adjustments; (c) any amendment which extends the expiry date of any Option or the Restriction Period of any PSU beyond the original expiry date, except in case of an extension due to a Black-Out Period; (d) any amendment which would allow non-employee directors to be eligible for awards under the Corporation LTIP; (e) any amendment which would permit any Option or PSU granted under the Corporation LTIP to be transferable or assignable by any participant other than by will or pursuant to the laws of succession; (f) any amendment which increases the maximum number of Shares that may be issued to insiders under the Corporation LTIP or any other proposed or established share compensation arrangement, except in case of Shares Adjustments; and (g) any amendment to the amendment provisions of the Corporation LTIP.

The Corporation LTIP Grants Awarded in Financial Year 2010

Effective March 3, 2011, the Board of Directors approved the granting of 452,872 PSUs to 132 participants.

As further approved by the Board of Directors, a total of 1,366,370 Options were awarded to 67 participants on March 3, 2011 with an exercise price of $12.79 each. Such grants have a 7-year term, with vesting over 4 years at a rate of 25% per year.

Furthermore, the Board of Directors approved the granting of additional Options to new hires in 2011, as described in the following table, with the same vesting criteria and option term as those granted on March 3rd:

Grant Date	Number of Options Granted	Option Exercise Price
June 2, 2011	120,000	$13.42
June 6, 2011	50,000	$13.39
August 18, 2011	125,000	$11.80
September 26, 2011	10,000	$11.68
November 17, 2011	56,500	$11.86

For 2011, an aggregate of 1,727,870 Options were granted, representing 0.99% of the total Shares outstanding. As at December 31, 2011 an aggregate of 4,004,069 Options were outstanding, representing 2.3% of total Shares outstanding. This compares to Options representing 1.7% of total Shares outstanding as at December 31, 2010.

The Corporation's 2011 long-term incentive plan awards were not granted based on the achievement of a specific set of performance criteria. Most plan participants received awards based on their role and degree of executive responsibility within the Corporation. Nevertheless, the Board and the HRCC retained the discretion to adjust LTIP awards upwards or downwards, based on the recommendation of Management, in order to recognize specific circumstances or instances of exceptional performance in the prior year.

None of the NEOs exercised any of their vested options in 2011.

The Corporation Deferred Share Unit Plan

The DSU Plan is administered by the Governance and Nominating Committee for the compensation of directors, and by the HRCC for the compensation of designated officers and executives of the Corporation. Directors of the Corporation are automatically eligible to participate in the DSU Plan while the HRCC designates from time to time and at its sole discretion, the designated officers and executives of the Corporation who are eligible to participate in the DSU Plan.

Subject to approval by the Board of Directors, designated officers and executives may elect to convert a portion of their annual bonus amount earned in DSUs. In addition, at its discretion, the Board of Directors may from time to time award DSUs to recognize outstanding achievements or for reaching certain corporate objectives. As described earlier, the objectives underlying participation of the Corporation executives in the DSU Plan are to provide significantly longer term engagement of Management in fulfilling value needs of Shareholders, nurture long-term retention of critical talent and support executives in meeting the applicable Shareholding Guidelines for Executives.

Since January 1, 2009, Directors (other than the Chairman) are granted annually (and issued quarterly) a fixed number of DSUs, which is set from time to time by the Board of Directors upon recommendation of the Governance and Nominating Committee (currently 1,500 DSUs per year). Directors are required to convert a minimum of 50% of their annual cash Board retainer fee in DSUs until they meet the applicable Shareholding Guidelines for Directors. In addition, Directors may also elect, on an annual basis, to convert all or a portion of their: (i) annual Board cash retainer fees; (ii) annual committee(s) cash retainer fees; and (iii) Board meeting fees, in DSUs. Effective January 1, 2011, the Chairman of the Board will receive an annual grant (issued quarterly) of 8,000 DSUs.

Upon termination of service, a participant in the DSU Plan shall be entitled to receive for each DSU credited to his account the payment in cash of the value of a Share (the "Share Value") at the market price on the date of his termination of service, provided, however, that if a participant's termination of service occurs concurrently with the occurrence of a Black-Out Period (as defined in the DSU Plan), the market price shall, in such case, be calculated at the end of the fifth trading day immediately following the last day of such Black-Out Period. No guarantee of the market value of the Shares is attached to the Share Value.

A participant in the DSU Plan is not entitled to exercise any Shareholder rights with respect to the Shares relative to DSUs that were granted to such participant. Additional DSUs are received as dividend equivalents. Vesting conditions may be attached to DSUs at the Board's discretion.

In the event of the occurrence of a Change in Control as defined in the Change in Control Policy, the Board of Directors may make such provision as the Board, in its discretion, considers appropriate in the circumstances, to ensure the value of DSUs prior to the implementation of any such transaction is not detrimentally affected as a result thereof.

During financial year 2011, a total of 30,817 DSUs were granted to non-executive Directors of the Corporation. No DSUs were awarded to executives in the fiscal year ended December 31, 2011.

The Corporation's Prior Long-Term Incentive Plans

Ongoing LTIP

Under the Ongoing LTIP, a trustee purchased units of Aeroplan Income Fund, which were converted into Shares following the conversion of Aeroplan Income Fund to the Corporation on June 25, 2008, at the time of the grant on the secondary market and at the expense of the Corporation. The trustee holds the Shares until such time as ownership vests to each participant. At the time of vesting, participants receive the Shares underlying the grants they received.

Shares under the Ongoing LTIP vests upon the successful achievement of specific corporate performance objectives over a three-year performance cycle. Dividends declared by the Corporation on any Shares granted under the Ongoing LTIP may, at the Corporation's discretion, be used to purchase additional Shares which vest concurrently and proportionately with the Shares initially granted.

Unvested Shares held by the trustee on behalf of an Ongoing LTIP participant are forfeited if the participant resigns or is terminated for cause prior to the applicable vesting date. If a participant retires, is terminated without cause or becomes disabled, his or her unvested Shares vest on a pro-rata basis, subject to the satisfaction of performance vesting conditions. If a participant dies, his or her unvested Shares become vested on a pro-rata basis.

Subject to the provisions contained in any employment agreement between a holder of Restricted Shares ("RSUs") and the Corporation, in the event of the occurrence of a Change in Control as defined under the Ongoing LTIP plan text, any unvested RSUs will become vested as of the date of the Change in Control, whether or not the vesting conditions have been met.

The final grants under the Ongoing LTIP were awarded on March 6, 2008 for the three-year performance cycle commencing January 1, 2008 and ending December 31, 2010, in the amount of 130,660 Shares and were awarded to 29 participants. A-EBITDA was defined as the core performance metric most appropriate to link management effectiveness to enterprise performance, and as such was applied as the basis for the vesting provisions. An evaluation of the three-year performance results for A-EBITDA was made on February 24, 2011 and based on these results the Board of Directors determined that the performance targets were met and therefore approved the vesting and payout of the awards. The performance targets and results for the three-year period are shown in the table below. This was the final cycle of awards made under this plan. No further awards are planned and the plan has been closed.

Year	A-EBITDA Target	A-EBITDA Results	Results % of Target	Vesting Approved
2008	$313.5 million	$319.2 million	102%	YES
2009	$278.3 million	$281.6 million	101%	YES
2010	$295.2 million	$294.4 million ⁽¹⁾	100%	YES

Omnibus Plan

As with the Ongoing LTIP, a trustee purchased Aeroplan Income Fund units under the Omnibus Plan, which were converted into Shares following the conversion of Aeroplan Income Fund to a Corporation on June 25, 2008. The trustee holds the Shares until such time as ownership vests to each participant. At the time of vesting, participants receive the Shares underlying the grants they received. Dividends declared by the Corporation on any Shares granted under the Omnibus Plan may, at the Corporation's discretion, be used to purchase additional Shares which vest concurrently and proportionately with the Shares initially granted.

Unvested Shares held by the trustee on behalf of an Omnibus Plan participant are forfeited if the participant resigns or is terminated for cause prior to the applicable vesting date. If a participant is terminated without cause, his or her unvested Shares vest on a pro-rata basis, subject to the satisfaction of performance vesting conditions, if any. If a participant retires, his or her unvested Shares continue to vest unless the award of the respective Shares is subject to the participant's continued employment until the end of the vesting period or the participant commences employment with a competitor, in which case the unvested Shares are forfeited. If a participant becomes disabled, Shares continue to vest. In the event of participant's death, his or her unvested Shares become immediately vested. Subject to the provisions contained in any employment agreement between a holder of RSUs and the Corporation, in the event of the occurrence of a Change in Control as defined under the Omnibus Plan text, any unvested RSUs will become vested as of the date of the Change in Control, whether or not the vesting conditions have been met.

No new awards were made under the Omnibus Plan in 2011. The last cycle of new awards under the plan were made in 2010, and the only awards outstanding under the plan are for the CEO and one other executive.

On February 23, 2011, upon the recommendation of the HRCC, the Board approved the vesting of the 2008 grants under the CEO's employment agreement due to the achievement of the underlying performance conditions for each of the financial years therein, and pending completion of time vesting conditions.

Specifically for the period 2008-2010 the Corporation met the performance vesting criteria as shown in the following table:

Year	A-EBITDA Target	A-EBITDA Results	Results % of Target	Vesting Approved
2008	$313.5 million	$319.2 million	102%	YES
2009	$278.3 million	$281.6 million	101%	YES
2010	$295.2 million	$294.4 million ⁽¹⁾	100%	YES

(1) Excludes the extraordinary, non operating events noted in the Management Information Circular dated March 18, 2011.

In December 2011, as a consequence of the achievement of the performance conditions described above in addition to all time-based conditions, the 50,000 time vesting and 30,000 performance vesting units granted to the CEO in December 2008 were vested and released. As a result, ownership of 35,830 performance vesting and 59,717 time vesting units (including reinvested dividends) held in trust were transferred to the CEO.
