THE BUSINESS

OVERVIEW

Aimia is a loyalty and travel consolidator focused on growing earnings through its existing investments and the targeted deployment of capital in loyalty solutions and other sub-sectors of the rapidly-expanding loyalty and travel markets.

Its investments in travel loyalty include the Club Premier program in Mexico, which it jointly controls with Aeroméxico through its investment in PLM, and an investment alongside Air Asia in travel technology company Big Life, the operator of BIG Loyalty.

Aimia also operates a loyalty solutions business, which is a well-recognized, global full-service provider of next-generation loyalty solutions for many of the world's leading brands in the retail, CPG, travel & hospitality, and financial services verticals.

STRUCTURE OF THE BUSINESS

For the year ended December 31, 2018, Aimia had two operating and reportable segments: the Coalitions division and the Insight & Loyalty Solutions division.

COALITIONS

At December 31, 2018, the Coalitions segment included the Aeroplan coalition loyalty program. The Aeroplan program was sold to Air Canada on January 10, 2019 as part of the Aeroplan Sale.

In addition to the Aeroplan program, at December 31, 2018, the Coalitions segment included the Corporation's investments in PLM, the owner and operator of Club Premier, a Mexican coalition loyalty program, and Big Life, the owner and operator of BIG Loyalty, AirAsia's loyalty program. The Coalitions segment also included the Canadian Loyalty Solutions business.

Club Premier

In December of 1991, Aeromexico launched Club Premier, the first loyalty program for a Mexican airline to promote loyalty among the airline's passengers and attract new customers. In September 2010, in connection with the Corporation's investment in the program, Aeromexico contributed the Club Premier program to PLM, and Aimia became a minority shareholder of PLM. In 2012, Aimia increased its stake in PLM to 48.9% and shares joint control with Aeromexico.

As of December 31, 2018, Club Premier had approximately 6.1 million members enrolled and is Mexico's largest travel loyalty program.

The members of Club Premier can accumulate Premier Points in several ways, including through air travel and financial card usage. Club Premier charges its accumulation partners a fee per point. These are reported as Gross Billings.

Club Premier is a tiered program, attributing different benefits and redemption offerings depending on the frequency and source of points issuance.

American Express issues co-branded charge cards through which cardholders can accumulate Premier Points based on their charge card purchases. As of December 31, 2018, PLM also had Visa co-branded credit card agreements with Santander in Mexico that runs to 2026 and US Bank in the US for the issuance of points based on credit card spend. PLM also partners with certain hotels and hotel chains, including Marriott, Hilton and Camino Real, and with the car rental agencies, including Hertz, under which Club Premier members accumulate Premier Points for each stay or rental. Other partners of the Club Premier program include Soriana, G500, Gandhi, Linio, and Palacio de Hierro, among others. Club Premier members may also convert their points accumulated in certain other reward programs into Premier Points.

The accumulation of Premier Points when traveling on Aeroméxico, Aeroméxico Connect or other SkyTeam member airlines or Code-Share airlines is governed under long term agreements covering accumulation and redemption with these airlines that extend through 2030.

Club Premier pays redemption partners the cost of rewards for points redeemed. Flight redemptions are the program's most popular redemption, with members able to access Aeromexico, Aeromexico Connect and other SkyTeam member airlines or code-share airlines flights and promotions. Club Premier members can also redeem their Premier Points for stays in thousands of hotels, as well as purchases of items, including electronics, toys and perfumes, through its eStore. Currently, Club Premier members can pay for items with Premier Points in stores such as Gandhi, and Mac Store.

Additionally, Club Premier Corporativo, PLM's corporate B2B loyalty program, offers benefits directly to businesses, allowing them to offer loyalty marketing services superior to other marketing alternatives, using Club Premier Points to attract and retain customers and stimulate demand for their products and services.

PLM continues to look for opportunities to expand the program and introduce innovative ways to generate revenue through the sale of Premier Points.

Big Loyalty

Big Life was incorporated in December 2010. Aimia became a minority shareholder in January 2014. As of December 31, 2018, Aimia owned 20% of Big Life, with RedBeat Ventures, a subsidiary of AirAsia, owning the remaining 80%.

As of December 31, 2018, BIG Loyalty had approximately 7.0 million active members, with offices in Malaysia, Singapore, Thailand, Indonesia, Philippines, India, HongKong and China.

The members of BIG Loyalty can accumulate Big Points in several ways, including through air travel, financial card usage, conversions, and top-up. Big Life charges its accumulation partners and members a fee per point issued. These are reported as Gross Billings.

Big Life pays redemption partners the cost of rewards for points redeemed. Flight redemptions are the program's most popular redemption, with members able to access flights and promotions on the nine AirAsia group airlines. BIG Loyalty members can also redeem their Big Points as a form of payment when purchasing AirAsia flights on airasia.com.

Aimia has granted licences to use the Air Miles, Air Miles Travel the World and Air Miles Shopping Rewards word marks and logos in the United Kingdom, Holland, Spain and the Middle East.

Aimia's intangible assets are an important part of its business. It benefits from the goodwill established for its brand names and protects its proprietary information, including its trademarks and database, through trademark laws, contractual provisions and confidentiality procedures. Employees, service providers and commercial partners are contractually bound to protect the Aimia's proprietary information in order to control access to and the distribution of any such information.

A number of privacy laws have been enacted in the key markets where we conduct business, including Canada, the United States, Europe and the Asia-Pacific region. Aimia and its Subsidiaries have privacy policies which are designed to comply with the requirements of the applicable local private sector privacy legislation.

The Personal Information Protection and Electronic Documents Act (Canada) (the “Federal PIPEDA”) governs the collection, use and disclosure of personal information in the course of commercial activities. Pursuant to the Federal PIPEDA, organizations may collect, use or disclose personal information only for purposes that a reasonable person would consider appropriate in the circumstances. Furthermore, the knowledge and consent of the individual are required for the collection, use or disclosure of his or her personal information except in certain circumstances as set out in the Federal PIPEDA. Québec, Alberta and British Columbia also have private sector privacy legislation and that legislation has been declared substantially similar to the Federal PIPEDA. The Canadian Radio-television and Telecommunications Commission governs rules for telemarketing and the National Do Not Call List. Canada’s Anti-Spam Legislation (“CASL”) prohibits the sending of a commercial electronic message to an electronic address without consent, and prescribes form and content requirements. Management believes that its privacy policies and practices comply with applicable law.

Businesses in the United States which collect or hold personal information must comply with a variety of federal and state laws that regulate the collection and use of personal information (“U.S. Privacy Laws”). The U.S. Privacy Laws may require certain notices, consents and processes for collection and processing of personal data, as well as reporting on disclosures of personal data, policies with regard to protections, and requirements for destruction of data.

In May 2018, the General Data Protection Regulation (“GDPR”) came into effect. GDPR aims to unify data protection legislation across the European Union and the transfer and protection of personal data from the European Union. GDPR increases compliance requirements for both data controllers and data processors, puts individuals more in control of their data and introduces higher financial penalties for non-compliance. The Data Protection Act 2018 came into force in the UK on 25 May 2018, which incorporates the GDPR into law in the UK and supplements its provisions. While countries outside the European Union have their own data protection laws that they are required to adhere to, most of these are not deemed ‘adequate countries’ for the purposes of GDPR by the EU Commission. As such, Aimia compensates for that by aligning to GDPR in these regions to the extent possible.

Operations in Australia must comply with the Australian Privacy Act of 1988 when collecting any personally identifiable information from program participants. The Australian Privacy Act of 1988 is governed by thirteen Australian Privacy Principles (“APPs”). The APPs regulate how Australian and Norfolk Island Government agencies and some private sector organizations manage personal information. They cover how and when personal information can be collected, how it should be used and disclosed, and storage and security. They also allow individuals to access that information and have it corrected if it is wrong.

Aimia’s operations in Asia are likewise subject to local privacy legislation. Singapore’s Personal Data Protection Act of 2012 governs the collection, use and disclosure of individuals’ personal data by organisations and contains provisions regarding the Do Not Call Registry. Malaysia's Personal Data Protection Act of 2010 is based on seven principles. In Hong Kong, Aimia must comply with the six Data Protection Principles which represent the core of Hong Kong's Personal Data (Privacy) Ordinance (Cap. 486) covering the life cycle of a piece of personal data.

Our business relies on highly skilled employees and our people are at the heart of Aimia's sustainable business over the long-term. Each Common Share shall entitle the holder thereof to one (1) vote at all meetings of shareholders of Aimia (the “Shareholders”) (except meetings at which only holders of another specified class of shares are entitled to vote, pursuant to the provisions of the CBCA).

The holders of Common Shares shall be entitled to receive, as and when declared by the directors of Aimia, subject to the rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions attaching to the Preferred Shares and to any other class of shares ranking senior to the Common Shares, dividends which may be paid in money, property or by the issue of fully paid shares in the capital of Aimia.

In the event of the liquidation, dissolution or winding-up of Aimia, whether voluntary or involuntary, or other distribution of assets of Aimia among Shareholders for the purpose of winding up its affairs, subject to the rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions attaching to the Preferred Shares and to any other class of shares ranking senior to the Common Shares, the holders of Common Shares shall be entitled to receive the remaining property of Aimia. In the event of an insufficiency of property and assets to pay in full the amounts which the holders of Common Shares are entitled to receive upon such liquidation, dissolution or winding-up, the holders of Common Shares shall participate rateably among themselves in accordance with the amounts to which they are respectively entitled upon such liquidation, dissolution or winding-up.

PREFERRED SHARES

The directors of Aimia may, at any time and from time to time, issue the Preferred Shares in one (1) or more series, each series to consist of such number of shares as may, before issuance thereof, be determined by the directors. The directors may from time to time fix, before issuance, the designation, rights, privileges, preferences, restrictions, conditions and limitations attaching to the Preferred Shares of each series, the whole subject to the issuance of a certificate of amendment in respect of articles of amendment in the prescribed form to designate a series of shares.

The holders of the Preferred Shares shall not be entitled to receive notice of, nor to attend or vote at meetings of the shareholders of Aimia other than (i) as provided for in the CBCA, and (ii) as have been provided for in the rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions attached to the Series 1 Preferred Shares, the Series 2 Preferred Shares, the Series 3 Preferred Shares and the Series 4 Preferred Shares, or as may be provided for in the rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions attached to any series of preferred shares created by the board of directors of Aimia (the “Board of Directors”), but in such cases, voting rights shall be attached to the preferred shares of such series if, and only if, Aimia fails to pay a certain number of dividends, as set out in such rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions.

The holders of the Preferred Shares shall be entitled to receive, as and when declared by the directors of Aimia, in preference and priority to any dividends on the Common Shares of Aimia and any other shares of Aimia ranking junior to the Preferred Shares, dividends which may be paid in money, property or by the issue of fully paid shares in the capital of Aimia.

In the event of the liquidation, dissolution or winding-up of Aimia or other distribution of assets of Aimia among Shareholders for the purpose of winding-up its affairs, the holders of the Preferred Shares shall, before any amount shall be paid to or any property or assets of Aimia distributed among the holders of the Common Shares or any other shares of Aimia ranking junior to the Preferred Shares, be entitled to receive an amount equal to the consideration received by Aimia upon the issuance of such shares together with, in the case of cumulative Preferred Shares, all unpaid cumulative dividends (which, for such purpose, shall be calculated as if such cumulative dividends were accruing from day to day for the period from the expiration of the last period for which cumulative dividends have been paid, up to and including the date of distribution) and, in the case of non-cumulative Preferred Shares, all declared and unpaid non-cumulative dividends, but shall not be entitled to share any further in the distribution of the property or assets of Aimia.

The above restrictions contained in the terms of the Preferred Shares render these shares not ideal for use as a takeover defense. Specifically, the fact that the Preferred Shares are non-voting except in certain limited circumstances where Aimia fails to pay a certain number of dividends make them unlike unconstrained “blank cheque” preferred shares.

Series 1 Preferred Shares and Series 2 Preferred Shares

Holders of the Series 1 Preferred Shares are entitled to receive fixed cumulative preferential cash dividend, as and when declared by the Board of Directors of Aimia, payable quarterly on the last business day of each of March, June, September and December at an annual rate of 6.50%, or $1.625 per Series 1 Preferred Share, for the initial five-year period ending on March 31, 2015. The dividend rate was reset on March 31, 2015, and will be reset every five years thereafter at a rate equal to the sum of the five-year Government of Canada bond yield plus 3.75%. On March 31, 2015 and on each March 31 every fifth year thereafter, Aimia may, at its option, redeem the Series 1 Preferred Shares in whole or in part by the payment of $25.00 in cash per Series 1 Preferred Share together with all declared and unpaid dividends to but excluding the date fixed for redemption. The Series 1 Preferred Shares do not have a fixed maturity date and are not redeemable at the option of the holders of the Series 1 Preferred Shares. Holders of Series 1 Preferred Shares had the right, at their option, to convert all or any of their Series 1 Preferred Shares into Series 2 Preferred Shares, on the basis of one Series 2 Preferred Share for each Series 1 Preferred Share, subject to certain conditions, on March 31, 2015, and will have such right on March 31 every fifth year thereafter.

Holders of the Series 2 Preferred Shares will be entitled to receive quarterly floating rate cumulative preferred cash dividends, as and when declared by the Board of Directors of Aimia, payable on the last business day of each of March, June, September and December in each year. On any Series 2 Conversion Date (as hereinafter defined) on and after March 31, 2020, Aimia may, at its option, redeem the Series 2 Preferred Shares in whole or in part by the payment of $25.00 in cash per Series 2 Preferred Share together with all declared and unpaid dividends to but excluding the date fixed for redemption. On any date after March 31, 2015, that is not a Series 2 Conversion Date (as hereinafter defined), Aimia may, at its option, redeem all or any part of the outstanding Series 2 Preferred Shares by the payment of an amount in cash of $25.50 per Series 2 Preferred Share together with all declared and unpaid dividends to but excluding the redemption date. The Series 2 Preferred Shares do not have a fixed maturity date and are not redeemable at the option of the holders of the Series 2 Preferred Shares. Holders of Series 2 Preferred Shares will have the right, at their option, on March 31, 2020, and on each March 31 every fifth year thereafter (each such date a “Series 2 Conversion Date”), to convert, subject to certain conditions, all or any of their Series 2 Preferred Shares, into Series 1 Preferred Shares, on the basis of one Series 1 Preferred Share for each Series 2 Preferred Share.

In the event of the liquidation, dissolution or winding-up of Aimia or any other distribution of assets of Aimia among its Shareholders for the purpose of winding-up its affairs, subject to the prior satisfaction of the claims of all creditors of Aimia and of holders of shares of Aimia ranking prior to the Series 1 Preferred Shares and the Series 2 Preferred Shares, the holders of Series 1 Preferred Shares and Series 2 Preferred Shares will be entitled to payment of an amount equal to $25.00 per share, plus an amount equal to all declared and unpaid dividends up to but excluding the date fixed for payment or distribution (less any tax required to be deducted and withheld by Aimia), before any amount may be paid or any assets of Aimia are distributed to the registered holders of any shares ranking junior to the Series 1 Preferred Shares and the Series 2 Preferred Shares. After payment of such amounts, the holders of Series 1 Preferred Shares and Series 2 Preferred Shares will not be entitled to share in any further distribution of the assets of Aimia.

Subject to applicable law, holders of Series 1 Preferred Shares and Series 2 Preferred Shares, in their capacity as holders thereof, will not be entitled to receive notice of, or to attend or to vote at, any meeting of Aimia's Shareholders, unless and until Aimia fails to pay dividends for any eight quarters. In the event that Aimia has not paid the dividends accrued and payable for any eight quarters, whether or not consecutive and whether or not such dividends have been declared, on the Series 1 Preferred Shares or the Series 2 Preferred Shares, as applicable, at the applicable dividend rate for such shares, the holders of shares of the relevant series will be entitled to receive notice of and to attend meetings of Shareholders of Aimia, other than meetings at which only holders of another specified class or series are entitled to vote, and to vote together with all of Aimia's other Shareholders entitled to vote at such meetings on the basis of one vote for each Series 1 Preferred Share or Series 2 Preferred Share held, as applicable. The voting rights of the holders of shares of the relevant series will forthwith cease upon payment by Aimia of all accrued but unpaid dividends on the shares of such series until such time as Aimia may again fail to pay the applicable dividend for any further eight quarters, in which case such voting rights will become effective again.

The Series 1 Preferred Shares and Series 2 Preferred Shares will rank on parity with all other Preferred Shares of Aimia and will rank prior to the Common Shares as to the payment of dividends and the distribution of the assets of Aimia in the event of the dissolution, liquidation or winding-up of the Corporation or any other distribution of the assets of Aimia for the purpose of winding-up its affairs.

The Series 1 Preferred Shares and Series 2 Preferred Shares have been given a rating of Pfd-5 (high) under review with developing implications by DBRS Limited ("DBRS"). Pfd-5 (high) is the thirteenth highest of sixteen ratings used by DBRS for preferred shares. According to DBRS, preferred shares rated Pfd-5 (high) are highly speculative and the ability of the entity to maintain timely dividend and principal payments in the future is highly uncertain. The Pfd-5 (high) rating typically coincides with companies with bond ratings of "B" or lower and often have characteristics which, if not remedied, may lead to default. "High" and "low" designations after a rating indicate a company's relative strength within the rating category.

Series 3 Preferred Shares and Series 4 Preferred Shares

Holders of the Series 3 Preferred Shares are entitled to receive fixed cumulative preferential cash dividend, as and when declared by the Board of Directors of Aimia, payable quarterly on the last business day of each of March, June, September and December at an annual rate of 6.25%, or $1.5625 per Series 3 Preferred Share, for the initial five-year period to but excluding March 31, 2019. The dividend rate will be reset on March 31, 2019, and every five years thereafter at a rate equal to the sum of the five-year Government of Canada bond yield plus 4.20%. On March 31, 2019, and on each March 31 every fifth year thereafter, Aimia may, at its option, redeem the Series 3 Preferred Shares in whole or in part by the payment of $25.00 in cash per Series 3 Preferred Share together with all declared and unpaid dividends to but excluding the date fixed for redemption. The Series 3 Preferred Shares do not have a fixed maturity date and are not redeemable at the option of the holders of the Series 3 Preferred Shares. Holders of Series 3 Preferred Shares will have the right, at their option, to convert all or any of their Series 3 Preferred Shares into Series 4 Preferred Shares, on the basis of one Series 4 Preferred Share for each Series 3 Preferred Share, subject to certain conditions, on March 31, 2019, and on March 31 every fifth year thereafter. On February 25, 2019, Aimia announced that it does not intend to exercise its right to redeem all or any number of the currently outstanding Series 3 Preferred Shares on March 31, 2019. As a result of its decision not to redeem all or any number of the Series 3 Preferred Shares, and subject to certain conditions set out in the rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions attaching to such shares, the holders of the Series 3 Preferred Shares had the right to convert all or any number of their Series 3 Preferred Shares, on a one-for-one basis, into Series 4 Preferred Shares on April 1, 2019. On March 19, 2019, Aimia announced that none of the Series 3 Preferred Shares would be converted into Series 4 Preferred Shares since fewer than 1,000,000 Series 3 Preferred Shares were tendered for conversion during the conversion notice period.

Holders of the Series 4 Preferred Shares will be entitled to receive quarterly floating rate cumulative preferred cash dividends, as and when declared by the Board of Directors of Aimia, payable on the last business day of each of March, June, September and December in each year. On any Series 4 Conversion Date (as hereinafter defined) on and after March 31, 2024, Aimia may, at its option, redeem the Series 4 Preferred Shares in whole or in part by the payment of $25.00 in cash per Series 4 Preferred Share together with all declared and unpaid dividends to but excluding the date fixed for redemption. On any date after March 31, 2019, that is not a Series 4 Conversion Date (as hereinafter defined), Aimia may, at its option, redeem all or any part of the outstanding Series 4 Preferred Shares by the payment of an amount in cash of $25.50 per Series 4 Preferred Share together with all declared and unpaid dividends to but excluding the redemption date. The Series 4 Preferred Shares do not have a fixed maturity date and are not redeemable at the option of the holders of the Series 4 Preferred Shares. Holders of Series 4 Preferred Shares will have the right, at their option, on March 31, 2024, and on each March 31 every fifth year thereafter (each such date a “Series 4 Conversion Date”), to convert, subject to certain conditions, all or any of their Series 4 Preferred Shares, into Series 3 Preferred Shares, on the basis of one Series 3 Preferred Share for each Series 4 Preferred Share.

In the event of the liquidation, dissolution or winding-up of Aimia or any other distribution of assets of Aimia among its Shareholders for the purpose of winding-up its affairs, subject to the prior satisfaction of the claims of all creditors of Aimia and of holders of shares of Aimia ranking prior to the Series 3 Preferred Shares and the Series 4 Preferred Shares, the holders of Series 3 Preferred Shares and Series 4 Preferred Shares will be entitled to payment of an amount equal to $25.00 per share, plus an amount equal to all declared and unpaid dividends up to but excluding the date fixed for payment or distribution (less any tax required to be deducted and withheld by Aimia), before any amount may be paid or any assets of Aimia are distributed to the registered holders of any shares ranking junior to the Series 3 Preferred Shares and the Series 4 Preferred Shares. After payment of such amounts, the holders of Series 3 Preferred Shares and Series 4 Preferred Shares will not be entitled to share in any further distribution of the assets of Aimia.

Subject to applicable law, holders of Series 3 Preferred Shares and Series 4 Preferred Shares, in their capacity as holders thereof, will not be entitled to receive notice of, or to attend or to vote at, any meeting of Aimia’s Shareholders, unless and until Aimia fails to pay dividends for any eight quarters. In the event that Aimia has not paid the dividends accrued and payable for any eight quarters, whether or not consecutive and whether or not such dividends have been declared, on the Series 3 Preferred Shares or the Series 4 Preferred Shares, as applicable, at the applicable dividend rate for such shares, the holders of shares of the relevant series will be entitled to receive notice of and to attend meetings of Shareholders of Aimia, other than meetings at which only holders of another specified class or series are entitled to vote, and to vote together with all of Aimia’s other Shareholders entitled to vote at such meetings on the basis of one vote for each Series 3 Preferred Share or Series 4 Preferred Share held, as applicable. The voting rights of the holders of shares of the relevant series will forthwith cease upon payment by Aimia of all accrued but unpaid dividends on the shares of such series until such time as Aimia may again fail to pay the applicable dividend for any further eight quarters, in which case such voting rights will become effective again.

The Series 3 Preferred Shares and Series 4 Preferred Shares will rank on parity with all other Preferred Shares of Aimia and will rank prior to the Common Shares as to the payment of dividends and the distribution of the assets of Aimia in the event of the dissolution, liquidation or winding-up of the Corporation or any other distribution of the assets of Aimia for the purpose of winding-up its affairs.

The Series 3 Preferred Shares and Series 4 Preferred Shares have been given a rating of Pfd-5 (high) under review with developing implications by DBRS. Pfd-5 (high) is the thirteenth highest of sixteen ratings used by DBRS for preferred shares. According to DBRS, preferred shares rated Pfd-5 (high) are highly speculative and the ability of the entity to maintain timely dividend and principal payments in the future is highly uncertain. The Pfd-5 (high) rating typically coincides with companies with bond ratings of “B” or lower and often have characteristics which, if not remedied, may lead to default. “High” and “low” designations after a rating indicate a company’s relative strength within the rating category.

RATINGS

In addition to the ratings assigned to its securities as described herein, Aimia has been assigned issuer credit ratings of BB (low) under review with developing implications by DBRS. Issuer credit ratings are intended to convey the opinion of a rating agency in respect of an obligor’s overall financial capacity to pay its financial obligations.

DBRS rates issuers with ratings ranging from “AAA”, the highest issuer credit rating, to “D”, for issuers that are in payment default. According to the DBRS rating system, long-term debt rated BB is defined to be speculative and non-investment grade, where the degree of protection afforded interest and principal is uncertain, particularly during periods of economic recession. Entities in the BB range typically have limited access to capital markets and additional liquidity support. In many cases, deficiencies in critical mass, diversification, and competitive strength are additional negative considerations. A DBRS rating may be modified by the addition of “(high)” or “(low)” to indicate the relative standing of a credit within a particular rating category.

Ratings are intended to provide investors with an independent assessment of the credit quality of an issue or issuer of securities and do not speak to the suitability of particular securities for any particular investor. A security rating is not a recommendation to buy, sell or hold securities and may be subject to revision or withdrawal at any time by the rating organization. There is no assurance that any rating will remain in effect for any given period of time or that any rating will not be withdrawn or revised entirely by a rating agency at any time if in its judgment circumstances so warrant.

In the last two years, Aimia paid DBRS their customary fees in connection with the above ratings. In the last two years, Aimia also paid Standard & Poor’s Ratings Services (“S&P”) their customary fees in connection with similar ratings. Aimia terminated its relationship with S&P effective March 1, 2019 following the repayment of all of the outstanding senior secured notes and the repayment of amounts outstanding under Aimia’s credit facility and termination thereof. Aimia has not made any payments to the rating agencies in the past two years for services unrelated to the provision of such ratings.

DEBT FINANCING

As at December 31, 2018, Aimia’s secured Credit Facility consisted of a revolving facility of $208 million with a maturity date of April 23, 2020. On January 10, 2019, Aimia used proceeds from the Aeroplan Sale to repay all amounts outstanding under the Credit Facility and terminated the Credit Facility.

DIVIDENDS AND DISTRIBUTIONS

On June 14, 2017, Aimia announced that it had suspended payment of all dividends on its Common Shares and its Series 1 Preferred Shares, Series 2 Preferred Shares and Series 3 Preferred Shares, including payment of the dividends declared on May 10, 2017, and originally scheduled to have been paid on June 30, 2017, based on Aimia’s determination that the capital impairment test set forth in paragraph 42(b) of the CBCA would not be satisfied. On February 25, 2019, Aimia announced a reduction in the stated capital account maintained in respect of the Common Shares and the payment on March 29, 2019 of the dividends originally declared on May 10, 2017, to the holders of record at the close of business on June 16, 2017.

On February 25, 2019, Aimia also announced the payment on March 29, 2019 of dividends on each of the Series 1 Preferred Shares, Series 2 Preferred Shares and Series 3 Preferred Shares accrued and unpaid since July 1, 2017 (representing accrued dividends on such preferred shares for six quarters), to holders of record at the close of business on March 19, 2019, as well as the payment on March 29, 2019 of the first quarterly dividends in 2019 for each of the Series 1 Preferred Shares, Series 2 Preferred Shares and Series 3 Preferred Shares, in each case payable to holders of record at the close of business on March 19, 2019.

For each of the three most recently completed financial years, Aimia declared quarterly dividends on its Common Shares, Series 1 Preferred Shares, Series 2 Preferred Shares and Series 3 Preferred Shares as follows:
