Governance and Nominating Committee

1. PURPOSE

The purpose of the Governance and Nominating Committee (the “Committee”) is to assist the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of Aimia Inc. (the “Corporation”) in fulfilling its oversight responsibilities by (i) ensuring that corporate governance guidelines are adopted, disclosed and applied, including director qualification standards, director responsibilities, director access to management and independent advisors, director compensation, director orientation and continuing education and annual performance evaluation of the Board, (ii) identifying individuals qualified to become new Board members and recommending to the Board the nominees for each annual meeting of shareholders of the Corporation, as well as (iii) such other matters delegated to the Committee by the Board.

2. COMPOSITION AND QUALIFICATION

- (a) The Committee shall be comprised of at least three directors as determined by the Board, provided that the Board may allow a lower number of directors on a temporary basis. All members of the Committee shall be independent (as defined under applicable securities laws) and comply with eligibility and qualification standards under applicable legislation in effect from time to time.
- (b) The members of the Committee shall possess the mix of characteristics, experiences and skills to provide an appropriate balance for the performance of the duties of the Committee, and in particular, at least two members shall have direct experience relevant to the Committee’s responsibilities in corporate governance, as determined by the Board.
- (c) The members of the Committee shall be appointed by the Board to hold office from the time of their appointment until the next annual general meeting of the shareholders of the Corporation or until their successors are appointed. Unless a Chair and a Secretary are appointed by the Board, the members of the Committee may designate a Chair and a Secretary by a majority vote of all the Committee members.
- (d) The Committee may invite, from time to time, such persons as it sees fit, to attend its meeting and to take part in discussion and consideration of the affairs of the Committee. However, any such persons invited may not vote at any meeting of the Committee.
- (e) The Board may remove, at any time, any member of the Committee at its discretion and may accept the resignation of any member of the Committee. Vacancies at any time occurring on the Committee shall be filled by the Board.

3. MEETINGS AND PROCEDURE

- (a) The Committee shall meet at least three times annually, or more frequently as circumstances require. Such meetings may be held in person, by telephone or by any other means, which enables all participants to communicate with each other simultaneously.
- (b) The Committee may fix its own procedure at meetings and for the calling of meetings, except as may be otherwise provided by the Board.
- (c) A quorum for the transaction of business at a Committee meeting shall be a majority of the Committee members. All decisions and recommendations made by the Committee shall be made by a majority vote of the members present at the meeting.
- (d) The Committee shall have the authority to delegate any of its responsibilities to individual members and subcommittees of the Committee, as the Committee may deem appropriate in its sole discretion.
- (e) Notice of meetings shall be given by letter, facsimile, email or telephone not less than 24 hours before the time fixed for the meeting other than in extraordinary circumstances. Notice of meetings shall state the date, the place, and the hour at which such meetings will be held. Members may waive notice of any meeting.
- (f) The minutes of the Committee meetings shall accurately record the significant discussions of, and decisions made by, the Committee, including all recommendations to be made by the Committee to the Board, and shall be distributed to Committee members with copies to the Executive Chairman and President and Chief Financial Officer of the Corporation (“CFO”).
- (g) The Committee, through its Chair, shall report to the Board on the proceedings and deliberations of the Committee at the first subsequent meeting of the Board, and at such other times and in such manner as the Board may require, or as the Committee in its discretion, may consider advisable.
- (h) To carry out its duties, the Committee will have access to independent advisors at the expense of the Corporation, as well as having access to data and performance information relative to the Corporation and its subsidiaries and associated entities. The Committee shall be free to choose advisors as it deems appropriate. These advisors will be given access to management and work carried out by management for presentation to the Committee.

4. RESPONSIBILITIES AND DUTIES

To fulfill its responsibilities and duties, the Committee shall:

(I) Related to Corporate Governance

- a) Review criteria regarding the composition of the Board and committees of the Board, such as size, proportion of independent to executive members and qualifications including relatedness and independence, and make recommendations to the Board.
- b) Review criteria relating to tenure, such as retirement age, limitations on the number of times a director may stand for re-election, and the continuation of directors in an honorary or similar capacity.

- c) Review criteria for retention of directors unrelated to age or tenure, such as attendance at Board and committee meetings, health or the assumption of responsibilities which are incompatible with effective Board membership.
- d) Assess the effectiveness of the Board as a whole and the committees of the Board.
- e) Review on a regular basis the adequacy and form of compensation of members of the Board in the context of the responsibilities and risks involved in being an effective director, including making recommendations to the Board with respect to the actual remuneration (fees, retainers, and currency) and benefits provided to members of the Board.
- f) Review the Charter of the Board of Directors.
- g) Review and develop position descriptions for the Chair of the Corporation and the President & CFO.
- h) Ensure that appropriate structures and procedures are in place so that the Board can function independently from management. To this end, arrange, at each scheduled meeting of the Board, for the external directors to meet for a period of time without management present.
- i) As an integral element of the process for appointing new members of the Board, put in place an orientation and education program for new recruits to the Board.
- j) Periodically review and approve the Code of Ethics.
- k) Make recommendations to the Board as deemed appropriate with respect to the monitoring, adoption, and disclosure of corporate governance guidelines in effect from time to time.
- l) Develop and recommend to the Board, standards to be applied in making determinations as to the presence or absence of material relationships between the Corporation and a member of the Board.
- m) Review on an annual basis, to the extent applicable, the Corporation's corporate social responsibility agenda.
- n) Review on an annual basis the Corporation's activities relating to charitable and other donations.
- o) Review such other corporate governance functions customarily carried out by governance, or similar, committees as well as such other matters which may be referred to it by the Board from time to time.

(II) Related to Nomination of Board Members

- a) Assist the Board in determining what competencies and skills the Board, as a whole, should possess and what competencies and skills each existing member possesses.
- b) Assist the Board in determining the appropriate size of the Board, with a view to facilitating effective decision-making.
- c) Develop and review criteria regarding personal qualification for Board membership, such as background, experience, technical skill, affiliations, and personal characteristics, and develop a process for identifying and recommending candidates.

- d) Review on an annual basis the Diversity Policy for the Board of Directors and Executive Officers (the “Diversity Policy”) and recommend for approval by the Board any changes thereto.
- e) Identify individuals qualified to become new Board members and recommend them to the Board. In making its recommendations, the Committee shall consider:
  - i. the competencies and skills that the Board considers to be necessary for the Board, as a whole, to possess;
  - ii. the competencies and skills that the Board considers each existing member to possess;
  - iii. existing Board composition as against the goals set forth the Diversity Policy; and
  - iv. the competencies and skills each new nominee will bring to the Board.
- f) Consider whether or not each new nominee can devote sufficient time and resources to his or her duties as a Board member.
- g) Recommend for approval by the Board nominees for each annual meeting of shareholders of the Corporation.
- h) Recommend for approval by the Board, candidates to fill vacancies on the Board occurring between annual meetings of shareholders of the Corporation.
- i) Perform such other nominating committee functions customarily carried out by nominating, or similar, committees, as well as such other matters which may be referred to it by the Board from time to time.

(III) Related to Committees of the Board

- a) Recommend to the Board the types, charters and composition of the Board committees.
- b) Recommend to the Board the nominees to the chair position of the Board committees including periodic rotation of committee assignments and memberships.
- c) Review and make recommendations to the Board, as deemed appropriate, with respect to time of service of members on committees, meetings procedures, quorum and notice requirements, records and minutes, resignations and vacancies on committees.
- d) Review and develop position descriptions for the Chair of each Board Committee.

(IV) Self-Assessment

- a) Review annually this Charter and any of the Committee's mandate and other documents used by the Committee in fulfilling its responsibilities.
- b) Complete a self-assessment on a regular basis to determine how effectively the Committee is meeting its responsibilities.
